Tribute Paid To Veterans By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy went to Arlington National Cemetery on this Veterans Day to honor the dead there and the millions who served and still live.

The program at the Tomb of the Unknowns, where the President was to speak briefly after laying a wreath, set the tone for ceremonies across the country.

The occasion was solemn and the background of events grim. The nation was mobilizing to defend itself against a possible war.

The hour for the Arlington Ceremony was 11 a.m.—the time of day when the Armistice ended World War I, fought, it was said then, to end all wars. There have been two major conflicts since—World War I and the Korean War.

The schedule for the ceremony was brief—a matter of a few minutes including the time for the President's remarks.

Kennedy came to make his speech both as a President and as a veteran. In World War II he was a PT boat captain, fighting against big ships with little craft in the far corners of the Pacific.

There are about 22-million veterans who served in the U.S. armed forces. About 15 million served in World War II and about 960,000 of these were still in service or came back to serve in the Korean War. The remainder of the veterans served in World War I, the Spanish-American War, and in other, smaller conflicts, or were in the armed forces in peacetime.

A speech deploring a possible third world conflict was heard Friday in the United Nations.

India's prime minister, Pandit Nehru, called for a moratorium on the current cold war and suggested that for the next full year U.N. delegates cease political bickering and cooperate in all other fields — "cultural or whatever."

To comply fully with such a scheme, the world body would have to set aside for a year consideration of such overriding issues as disarmament and the stopping of nuclear weapons tests — tests which Nehru condemned as basically evil.

It would also virtually rule out debate on the many colonial questions foremost in the minds of the U.N.'s 49 Asian and African members. These questions involve attacks of most of the big powers and are closely intertwined with cold war issues.

Various delegates hailed Nehru's call for a united attempt to avoid the terror of nuclear disaster instead of thinking about "burrowing under the earth like rats in a hole."

Many expressed disappointment, however, that the Indian leader did not advance more concrete proposals than a generalized appeal for political and cultural cooperation.

Interpretations of what he did propose varied. U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said the idea of a year devoted to cooperation was a good one but hardly new. The United States, he said, had been cooperating with nations for years.

One African delegate quoted a saying "When there is too much salt in the dish it is hard to improve."

"There is too much trouble at the U.N. now for Mr. Nehru's suggestions to have much effect," he said.

India itself has been one of the most controversial members of the United Nations in recent years. It has been accused of aggravating the explosive disarmament problem by trying to equate the Soviet Union's recent giant explosions in the air with U.S. underground testing.

Church of Christ Set To Explore Unity Plan

NEW YORK (AP) — A spokesman for the United Church of Christ says the church has accepted an invitation to join in exploratory talks toward unity with the Presbyterian, Protestant Episcopal and Methodist denominations.

The Rev. Dr. Ben M. Herbst, president of the United Church of Christ said Friday the church would be represented by a delegation of nine at a conference in Washington April 9-10.

LAFB Airman Is Wounded While Hunting

A Lockbourne Air Force Base sergeant suffered a rifle wound in the left side at 3:30 p. m. yesterday while hunting groundhogs with his son along the Scioto River, south of Route 762.

M-Sgt. Fred R. McJunkin was taken to the base hospital following the accident. Sheriff Walton W. Spangler investigated.

Air base officials were notified of the accident by T. W. Overholser and R. D. Kreis, game protectors who were working in the vicinity of the shooting.

Overholser said he had checked out McJunkin and his 15-year-old son who were hunting groundhogs on the west bank of the Scioto River, south of Route 762.

THE game wardens said shortly after they talked with the hunters they heard a shot. The younger McJunkin came running after them for help.

McJunkin told the game protectors he had placed his rifle against a tree. He said that it started to fall and he attempted to grab it, causing the weapon to discharge.

According to Sheriff Spangler, the bullet struck McJunkin in the right side, below the ribs.

LAFB officials today declined to list McJunkin condition on extent of injuries.

Fire Claims Averaging $50,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Insurance claims from the devastating Bel-Air and Topanga Canyon fires range from $185 to $70,000 averaging about $50,000.

"They're running very high," one official said Friday.

Adjusters from many parts of the West have poured into the stricken area to sift the ruins of Southern California's worst fire and to help homeowners collect an estimated $24 million for insured losses. Some 450 homes were destroyed, all but nine in the Bel-Air section.

The General Adjustment Bureau, representing 320 stock property insurance companies, says 32 adjusters flew in to join a local staff of 82. They began examining the fire scene less than 24 hours after the blaze began—and two days before it was controlled.

Phil Simkins, the bureau's regional director, could not say how much Hollywood notables, or other certain individuals, were claiming. But he said some payments began Tuesday.

"We urge the insured not to operate under shock, not to complete their listings under duress," said Simkins.

Simkins estimates 30 per cent of the amounts claimed will be for homes, nearly 70 per cent for personal belongings. "You must remember that fine art can build some of these personal claims up pretty fast," says Simkins.

Prisoner Learns Pen Is No 'Box'

"I'll get out of this crackerbox" was a final statement made by Thomas Cartwright, 37, when he was taken to the Ohio State Penitentiary in 1960 to begin serving a 10 to 25-year sentence imposed in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court for armed robbery.

Last night Cartwright threatened to make this statement come true. But his effort, along with that of two other prison mates failed the start.

Tipped off prison guards looked on as the three inmates put their escape plans into effect. They were captured within the prison walls as they tried to climb to a cell block roof.

Cartwright made his "crackerbox" statement to Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff when the former county officer transferred him to the penitentiary in 1960.

A FORMER resident of Washington C. H. Cartwright had been tried here in connection with an armed robbery at the William Kadel Restaurant, Route 22 west of Williamsport, on Sept. 5, 1958. He was picked up in Flagstaff, Ariz., in 1959.

Cartwright was returned here by Sheriff Radcliff who traveled to Flagstaff. On the return trip it was reported that the prisoner had a key to his handcuffs. However, the journey back to Circleville was made without incident.

While awaiting trial here, Cartwright made two attempts to escape from the county jail. Both plots were foiled.

According to files here, the Fayette County man has a long prison record dating back to 1940. His prison time includes bitches in Alcatraz, the state penitentiary at Pendleton, Ind., Ind., the Federal Reformatory at Chillicothe, the U. S. Penitentiary at Terre Haute, Ind., the federal prison at Springfield, Mo., the state penitentiary at Nashville, Tenn. and the U. S. Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga.

Two other men involved in the Kadel Restaurant robbery, Virgil

Boggs and Paul Hurler, were captured shortly after the holdup. They were sentenced following trial here.

Arthur Frey, 31, one of the men attempting to escape last night, was taken to the penitentiary hospital suffering from what appeared to be a fractured spine. He fell about 30 feet from a rope ladder, officials said.

Cartwright and Noel A. Morgan, 28, the third prisoner, were placed in solitary confinement after the attempt. Morgan was halfway up the cell block wall when guards closed in.

Warden Ernie Maxwell and State Corrections Chief Maury C. Koblenz said guards had been tipped off that something was up when they found escape material including the rope ladder, earlier in the evening.

New Federal Idle Pay Plan Is Hinted

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's orders for a study of the unemployment count were seen today on Capitol Hill as the first step in a drive to revise and expand the unemployment insurance system.

Congress this year swiftly complied with Kennedy's first legislative proposal in an emergency extension of unemployment insurance benefits for workers who had exhausted theirs.

But an administration bill making permanent changes in the insurance system, broadening coverage, increasing benefits and raising taxes, has been in the House Ways and Means Committee without action since June.

Kennedy appointed Friday a committee headed by Robert Aaron Gordon, University of California economist, to study the methods by which the government arrives at its estimates of unemployment. The committee is to make recommendations for any needed improvements.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, who suggested the study, remarked it was "essential that the public have complete confidence in the statistics."

History Question: Wheres Volgograd?

LONDON (AP) — Remember the battle of Volgograd? Clue: It was a turning point in the German-Russian phase of World War II.

Volgograd is on the Volga. In czarist times it was called Tsaritsyn. Still draw a blank?

Well, then, maybe the name Stalingrad will help.

The Russians, rewriting history, substituted the name Volgograd for Stalingrad Friday to go along with the downgrading of Joseph Stalin.

Volgograd—the new name—is obviously for the Volga River. The city sprawls across both banks of the Volga. It has a population of about 300,000.

U.S. Awaits Clarification On 'Change' in Soviet Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Puzzled U.S. officials awaited today clarification from Moscow of widely published reports that the Soviet Union has developed a four-point proposal for negotiation on a settlement of the Berlin crisis.

There was encouragement among high officials here as evidence that Soviet Premier Khrushchev seems to be moving into a negotiating position. But officials found no hint in the report of Soviet concessions that would give hope of an early East West agreement on Berlin.

Furthermore, State Department informants said they lacked any official word from U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow to the effect that the Soviets had actually come up with a definite point-by-point proposition. On the contrary, word from Thompson Friday was that as far as he could judge basic Soviet policy on West Berlin stands unchanged.

The whole situation is due for discussion by State Department officials and diplomatic representatives of Britain, France and West Germany Monday.

Press dispatches from Moscow Thursday night told of what was described as a new four-point plan being advanced by the Soviet Union for a Berlin solution.

The essence of the proposal, as described in these dispatches, was that Russia and the United States, Britain and France would agree on a new status for West Berlin, guaranteeing the freedom of the city and access to it. East Germany would respect this new Soviet-Western agreement in an accord to be reached by Russia and the East German Communist regime. For their part, the Western powers would undertake to respect the sovereignty of East Germany.

The agreements between Russia and the Western powers would be worked out in advance of Khrushchev's proposed Soviet peace treaty with East Germany.

Chimp Launch On Schedule

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The explosion of an Atlas missile that killed a small monkey will not delay an attempt to launch a chimpanzee into orbit next week, officials report.

The Atlas exploded in flight Friday and a 15-pound squirrel monkey named Goliath died in the fiery blast. Scientists had hoped to learn his reaction to stresses of space travel during the intended 650-mile high 5,000-mile down range flight.

Goliath is the 29th known rocket-borne animal, Russian and American, to die in man's effort to learn how he might be affected by journeys into space. Several other animal deaths undoubtedly have occurred but have not been made public.

Careful analysis of data radioed from the missile showed the trouble should not be experienced on another Atlas scheduled to lift the chimpanzee into orbit on the last scheduled Project Mercury launch before an American astronaut is whirled into orbit.

The missile, the 100th Atlas launched, was an advanced E model. This is a more powerful and vastly different rocket than the more thoroughly tested and reliable Atlas D used in the Mercury program.

The D and E Atlases have many similar characteristics. If a part or system common to both missiles had been at fault Friday, the chimpanzee shot probably would have been held up until the trouble was corrected.

Some Financial Aid Possible For GI Victims

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army recruits killed in the crash of a chartered plane at Richmond, Va., were not covered by any insurance, unless they had taken out individual policies, the Army said.

The GI insurance program was ended after the Korean conflict. However, a spokesman said in reply to questions, some payments to surviving relatives would be possible.

Among these is a six-month gratuity pay, under which a minimum of $800 and a maximum of $3,000 is provided, depending on the grade of the individual. Since most of those killed were recruits, these payments probably would be minimum.

The law also provides for payment of benefits to dependents, which amount to $112 a month, plus 12 per cent of base pay. But, because most of those killed were young, they would have few, if any, dependents.

Military personnel also are eligible for Veterans Administration benefits, with payments up to $250 for funeral expenses.

Uncertain Fate Awaits Molotov

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A Vienna-Moscow express train bore former Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov home today to face the consequences of his denouncement last month by the Soviet communist party.

The 71-year-old Bolshevik, a loser in top level infighting between Communist theoreticians, slipped out of Vienna virtually unnoticed Friday night. He had been a quiet resident of this city for more than a year as Soviet delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency—the atoms-for-peace organization.

Molotov went to the Soviet Embassy Friday. Police and news-men who maintained a watch on the building said they did not see him depart. An unexplained power failure in the night blacked out the area around the embassy for about 20 minutes.

Austrian authorities confirmed that Molotov and his wife, Paulina, boarded the Vienna-Moscow express here and crossed the border into Czechoslovakia at Hohenau at 11 p. m.

The journey could close the book on the public career of the Soviet official who dropped from his Foreign Ministry post and membership in the politbureau under Joseph Stalin to disgrace and relative obscurity under Premier Khrushchev.

There was no indication of just what was in store for Molotov in Moscow although his denunciation by the congress was considered a preliminary to actual loss of life. Moscow Tuesday that Molotov's fate "is of no practical importance. We haven't decided yet."

Informed sources said the staff of the Soviet Embassy here had taken the initial action that would lead to his formal ouster.

The 22nd Soviet Communist party congress last month demanded that Molotov and his followers be dismissed from the party for opposing Khrushchev's policies in the 1957 power struggle

Scioto Conservancy District Names Board of Appraisers

The recently created Scioto Conservancy District took another step forward yesterday with the appointment of a three-man board of appraisers.

A Columbus realtor, the mayor of Waverly and a Portsmouth farmer - conservancy specialist will serve on the board. The Conservancy District is composed of Pickaway, Franklin, Pike, Scioto and Ross Counties.

The conservancy district court, meeting in Columbus, appointed Charles F. Johnson, William J. Fleck and James S. Peebles. The new board will eventually employ appraisers and supervise their work in connection with land acquisition and damage payments for flood protection measures planned in the five-county district.

They also will keep in touch with engineers who are developing a master plan for flood control.

JOHN H. DUNLAP JR., of near Williamsport is one of three directors named several months ago to head the Conservancy District on an area level.

Johnson, 82, has been a realtor in Columbus since 1902 and has done appraisal work for that city

Cleveland Slayer, 19, Saved from Execution

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The death row countdown in Ohio Penitentiary for the electrocution of Clarence V. Ferguson came to a halt Friday afternoon.

It was just a few hours before the 8 p.m. execution time that word came from Washington that Justice Potter Stewart of the U.S. Supreme Court had granted the 19-year-old Cleveland slayer a stay.

It climaxed a rush of activity by counsel for the youth convicted of the March 4 holdup-slaying of druggist Benjamin Kaufman, 62, in Cleveland.

Panthers Trampled As CHS Team Rolls To Ninth Triumph

By RON COFFMAN

Coach Carl Benhase stopped wringing the water from his crumpled tie into a bucket, looked up and grinned happily. "It was the best shower I ever had, clothes or no clothes," the head Circleville High School grid mentor said simply.

For Benhase, whose Tigers had just completed clobbering Pleasant View 33-13, the stroke of understatement was classic. The win gave CHS a part interest in the South Central Ohio League championship for the first time in a decade and capped the stocky coach's most successful (9-1) season in three years at the Bengal's helm.

"My staff... The credit should go to my coaching staff," Benhase shouted as he struggled into his office surrounded by enthusiastic well-wishers. His staff members, drenched to the skin from excursions through the traditional post-victory shower-toss, called back words of praise for their chief. Soon fans descended on coaches Dick Fisher, John Adler, Jim Lint

Circleville shares the circuit top spot with Washington C. H. in the wrap-up of the SCOL campaign. The Blue Lions marked a 30-6 triumph over Franklin Heights to take half the crown.

THE TIGERS pulled off the victory with much the same flair for big, brassy running and solid, punching line work that has become a CHS offensive trademark.

A passing attack frequently mentioned but little seen in the Tiger's playing packet also leaped to life last night producing 121 choice aerial yards, two of them Dave Hannahs tosses good for touchdowns.

For Circleville it was a complete triumph. In the statistics ledger the Tigers outgained the Panthers 11 to six in first downs; 313 to 197 in total offense; made four interceptions of PV pass attempts. What did not show on the statistical sheet was the complete offensive and defensive domination by the first string CHS unit.

It was a game in which the visitors could not move out of their own territory during the entire first half, a game in which Pleasant View gained only 14 net yards in the opening two quarters of play. It was a game in which the Circleville offense unleashed five touchdowns in the first half, three of them in the second period. But most of all it was a game "Which we knew we had to win to be champs — so we won it," said captain Rooney.

The locals moved to the attack early, forcing Pleasant View to (Continued on Page 8)

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, who suggested the study, remarked it was "essential that the public have complete confidence in the statistics."

Ohio Tourists Involved in Stinking Deal

GRANTS, N.M. (AP)—This is about the stinking situation that Mr. and Mrs. John Mayer of Willoughby, Ohio, got themselves into.
It happened on U. S. 66 Thursday night. State Policeman Tommy Cantow had nearly reached the scene where a car overturned when he was flagged down by the driver—Mayer.
"I just ran over a whole herd of skunks," said the Ohioan.
Near the car were three dead skunks.
Mayer said it looked like a mother and a whole bunch of baby skunks had been going across the road. As his car bore down on them, the skunks all turned in unison and let go with the odoriferous charm for which they are known.
Mayer said the smelly secretion came through the car's heater vents and blinded him, causing him to lose control of the vehicle. He and his wife were not hurt.

U.S. Awaits Clarification On 'Change' in Soviet Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Puzzled U.S. officials awaited today clarification from Moscow of widely published reports that the Soviet Union has developed a four-point proposal for negotiation on a settlement of the Berlin crisis.
There was encouragement among high officials here as evidence that Soviet Premier Khrushchev seems to be moving into a negotiating position. But officials found no hint in the report of Soviet concessions that would give hope of an early East West agreement on Berlin.
Furthermore, State Department informants said they lacked any official word from U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow to the effect that the Soviets had actually come up with a definite point-by-point proposition. On the contrary, word from Thompson Friday was that as far as he could judge basic Soviet policy on West Berlin stands unchanged.
The whole situation is due for discussion by State Department officials and diplomatic representatives of Britain, France and West Germany Monday.
Press dispatches from Moscow Thursday night told of what was described as a new four-point plan being advanced by the Soviet Union for a Berlin solution.
The essence of the proposal, as described in these dispatches, was that Russia and the United States, Britain and France would agree on a new status for West Berlin, guaranteeing the freedom of the city and access to it. East Germany would respect this Soviet-Western agreement in an accord to be reached by Russia and the East German Communist regime. For their part, the Western powers would undertake to respect the sovereignty of East Germany.
The agreements between Russia and the Western powers would be worked out in advance of Khrushchev's proposed Soviet peace treaty with East Germany.

Chimp Launch On Schedule

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The explosion of an Atlas missile that killed a small monkey will not delay an attempt to launch a chimpanzee into orbit next week, officials report.
The Atlas exploded in flight Friday and a 14-pound squirrel monkey named Goliath died in the fiery blast. Scientists had hoped to learn his reaction to stresses of space travel during the intended 650-mile high 5,000-mile down range flight.
Goliath is the 29th known rocket-borne animal. Russian and American, to die in man's effort to learn how he might be affected by journeys into space. Several other animal deaths undoubtedly have occurred but have not been made public.
Careful analysis of data radioed from the missile showed the trouble should not be experienced on another Atlas scheduled to lift the chimpanzee into orbit on the last scheduled Project Mercury launching before an American astronaut is whirled into orbit.
The missile, the 100th Atlas launched, was an advanced E model. This is a more powerful and vastly different rocket than the more thoroughly tested and reliable Atlas D used in the Mercury program.
The D and E Atlases have many similar characteristics. If a part or system common to both missiles had been at fault Friday, the chimpanzee shot probably would have been held up until the trouble was corrected.

Some Financial Aid Possible For GI Victims

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army recruits killed in the crash of a chartered plane at Richmond, Va., were not covered by any insurance, unless they had taken out individual policies, the Army said.
The GI insurance program was ended after the Korean conflict.
However, a spokesman said in reply to questions, some payments to surviving relatives would be possible.
Among these is a six-month gratuity pay, under which a minimum of $800 and a maximum of $3,000 is provided, depending on the grade of the individual. Since most of those killed were recruits, these payments probably would be minimum.
The law also provides for payment of benefits to dependents, which amount to $112 a month, plus 12 per cent of base pay. But, because most of those killed were young, they would have few, if any, dependents.
Military personnel also are eligible for Veterans Administration benefits, with payments up to $250 for funeral expenses.
CINCINNATI (AP)—A thief took only the money he needed when he visited the office of the Green Line Steamers, Inc., Friday. He took $2,000 and left behind $4,000 which was in plain sight.

Uncertain Fate Awaits Molotov

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A Vienna-Moscow express train bore former Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov home today to face the consequences of his denouement last month by the Soviet communist party.
The 71-year-old Bolshevik, a loser in top level infighting between Communist theoreticians, slipped out of Vienna virtually unnoticed Friday night. He had been a quiet resident of this city for more than a year as Soviet delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency—th atoms-for-peace organization.
Molotov went to the Soviet Embassy Friday. Police and newsmen who maintained a watch on the building said they did not see him depart. An unexplained power failure in the night blacked out the area around the embassy for about 20 minutes.
Austrian authorities confirmed that Molotov and his wife, Paulina, boarded the Vienna-Moscow express here and crossed the border into Czechoslovakia at Hohenau at 11 p.m.
The journey could close the book on the public career of the Soviet official who dropped from his Foreign Ministry post and membership in the politbureau under Joseph Stalin to disgrace and relative obscurity under Premier Khrushchev.
There was no indication of just what was in store for Molotov in Moscow although his denunciation by the congress was considered a preliminary to actual loss of life. Moscow Tuesday that Molotov's fate "is of no practical importance. We haven't decided yet."
Informed sources said the staff of the Soviet Embassy here had taken the initial action that would lead to his formal ouster.
The 22nd Soviet Communist party congress last month demanded that Molotov and his followers be dismissed from the party for opposing Khrushchev's policies in the 1957 power struggle.

Scioto Conservancy District Names Board of Appraisers

The recently created Scioto Conservancy District took another step forward yesterday with the appointment of a three-man board of appraisers.
A Columbus realtor, the mayor of Waverly and a Portsmouth farmer - conservancy specialist will serve on the board. The Conservancy District is composed of Pickaway, Franklin, Pike, Scioto and Ross Counties.
The conservancy district court, meeting in Columbus, appointed Charles F. Johnson, William J. Fleck and James S. Peebles. The new board will eventually employ appraisers and supervise their work in connection with land acquisition and damage payments for flood protection measures planned in the five-county district.
They also will keep in touch with engineers who are developing a master plan for flood control.
JOHN H. DUNLAP JR., of near Williamsport is one of three directors named several months ago to head the Conservancy District on an area level.
Johnson, 82, has been a realtor in Columbus since 1902 and has done appraisal work for that city and, during World War II, for the U. S. Army Engineers in the 5th Corps' 13-state area.
Fleck, a banker in Waverly, was just re-elected mayor there. Peebles, of Portsmouth, has been active in farm organizations and as chairman of Scioto County's conservancy committee.

Cleveland Sloyer, 19, Saved from Execution

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The death row countdown in Ohio Penitentiary for the electrocution of Clarence V. Ferguson came to a halt Friday afternoon.
It was just a few hours before the 8 p.m. execution time that word came from Washington that Justice Potter Stewart of the U.S. Supreme Court had granted the 19-year-old Cleveland slayer a stay.
It climaxed a rush of activity by counsel for the youth convicted of the March 4 holdup-slaying of drugist Benjamin Kaufman, 62, in Cleveland.

Some U. S. Aides Sent to Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department says a "limited number" of U.S. personnel will be sent to South Viet Nam "under the regular military assistance program" for the Southeast Asian country.
This was in reply Friday to questions about a New York Times dispatch from Saigon, the South Viet Nam capital. It said the U.S. Air Force had begun a huge supply and training program to strengthen the country's defenses against intensified Communist guerrilla military operations.
A Pentagon spokesman said assistance in training South Viet Nam air force personnel has been carried out for years.
Finn Official Arrives For Talks in Moscow
MOSCOW (AP) — Foreign Minister Ahti Karjalainen of Finland came to Moscow today at the invitation of Soviet leaders, who called the little Baltic republic into consultations about what they view as a threat in West German rearmament.
Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko welcomed Karjalainen, who made the trip in response to a Soviet note of Oct. 30 calling for consultations under the terms of the Soviet-Finnish friendship and mutual defense treaty of 1948.

10-Year Quest For Title Ends With 33-13 Win

Panthers Trampled As CHS Team Rolls To Ninth Triumph

By RON COFFMAN
Coach Carl Benhase stopped wringing the water from his crumpled tie into a bucket, looked up and grinned happily. "It was the best shower I ever had, clothes or no clothes," the head Circleville High School grid mentor said simply.
For Benhase, whose Tigers had just completed clobbering Pleasant View 33-13, the stroke of understatement was classic. The win gave CHS a part interest in the South Central Ohio League championship for the first time in a decade and capped the stocky coach's most successful (9-1) season in three years at the Bengal's helm.
"My staff... The credit should go to my coaching staff," Benhase shouted as he struggled into his office surrounded by enthusiastic well-wishers. His staff members, drenched to the skin from excursions through the traditional post-victory shower-toss, called back words of praise for their chief. Soon fans descended on coaches Dick Fisher, John Adler, Jim Lint and Jim Shaw, besieging them with congratulations in the wildest locker room scene on recent record around CHS.
Circleville shares the circuit top spot with Washington C. H. in the wrap-up of the SCOL campaign. The Blue Lions marked a 30-6 triumph over Franklin Heights to take half the crown.
THE TIGERS pulled off the victory with much the same flair for big, brassy running and solid, punching line work that has become a CHS offensive trademark.
A passing attack frequently mentioned but little seen in the Tiger's playing packet also leaped to life last night producing 121 choice aerial yards, two of them Dave Hannahs tosses good for touchdowns.
For Circleville it was a complete triumph. In the statistics ledger the Tigers outgained the Panthers 11 to six in first downs; 313 to 197 in total offense; made four interceptions of PV pass attempts. What did not show on the statistical sheet was the complete offensive and defensive domination by the first string CHS unit.
It was a game in which the visitors could not move out of their own territory during the entire first half, a game in which Pleasant View gained only 14 net yards in the opening two quarters of play. It was a game in which the Circleville offense unleashed five touchdowns in the first half, three of them in the second period. But most of all it was a game "Which we knew we had to win to be champs — so we won it," said captain Rooney.
The locals moved to the attack early, forcing Pleasant View to (Continued on Page 8)

Fall League Grid Meeting Set Monday

As of tomorrow night the South Central Ohio League will have a 1961 All Star football squad — and as co-champions Circleville will be entitled to major representation on the loop "dream team".

A total of 22 players are to be selected by coaches of the eight league schools in a meeting at 7 p. m. Sunday in the Hotel Washington in Washington, D. C., permanent gathering point for SCOL sessions. Eleven of the gridgers will be named to the offensive team and an equal number picked for the all-loop defense brigade.

Monday evening the annual SCOL fall dinner meeting will be conducted at the Washington Country Club. The All Stars are to be guests of honor, the first time such a team has been brought together for public acclaim. In the past members were simply notified of their selection.

Circleville and Washington C. H. representatives and special guests will accept trophies for the split 1961 championship. Richard Snouffer, CHS principal, is chairman of the principal's committee, governing body of the league. He will attend the Monday session. Between 90 and 100 coaches, aides, principals and superintendents from the affiliated schools, plus press representatives and special guests will attend.

Local Rotarian's Attendance Chart Wins Highest Acclaim

A veteran local Rotarian has drawn the praise of officials ranking at the top of the international service club organization for his construction of a special chart which visually demonstrates the attendance of each member of the club each week of the Rotary year.

Karl Herrmann, 118 N. Washington St., attendance chairman for the Circleville Rotary Club, divided the chart as a means of increasing attendance at club sessions. Colored symbols indicate whether each member missed or was present at each meeting, made up his absence by going to another club's meeting and what the reasons for excused absences were.

Herrmann said he devised the chart at a time when club officials were concerned about lagging attendance. His work indicates a steady increase of percentage-of-members present since use of the large cardboard chart was instituted. The graph is placed on prominent display at each Rotary meeting.

Chic Jacoby of Granville, immediate past governor of Rotary district No. 669, which includes Circleville, first saw the chart during an official inspection tour in January. He asked Herrmann to supply him with background information on the chart.

SEVERAL months ago Herrmann received a letter from Karl K. Krueger, editor of "The Rotarian" in Chicago, the international Rotary magazine. Krueger also congratulated the local man on his efforts and said use might be made of a story about the chart.

Until this week Herrmann said he had forgotten all about the article until a fellow club member showed him a copy of the November issue of "Timely Tips", a special Rotary International bulletin service dealing with outstanding club projects on a local level.

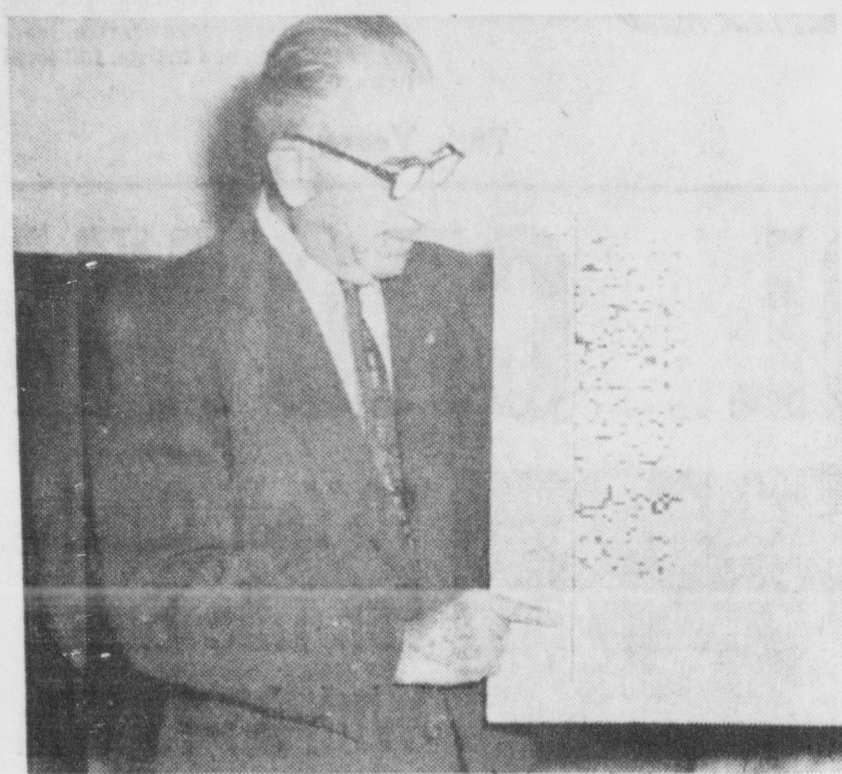

Included in the issue was a detailed story of Herrmann's chart and commendations from high Rotary officials on the effectiveness of the effort in promoting more club interest. Other clubs have already requested plans for using such a chart in their organizations.

Local Rotarian's Attendance Chart Wins Highest Acclaim

A veteran local Rotarian has drawn the praise of officials ranking at the top of the international service club organization for his construction of a special chart which visually demonstrates the attendance of each member of the club each week of the Rotary year.

Karl Herrmann, 118 N. Washington St., attendance chairman for the Circleville Rotary Club, devised the chart as a means of increasing attendance at club sessions. Colored symbols indicate whether each member missed or was present at each meeting, made up his absence by going to another club's meeting and what the reasons for excused absences were.

Herrmann said he devised the chart at a time when club officials were concerned about lagging attendance. His work indicates a steady increase of percentage of members present since use of the large cardboard chart was instituted. The graph is placed on prominent display at each Rotary meeting.

Chic Jacoby of Granville, immediate past governor of Rotary district No. 669, which includes Circleville, first saw the chart during an official inspection tour in January. He asked Herrmann to supply him with background information on the chart.

SEVERAL months ago Herrmann received a letter from Karl K. Krueger, editor of "The Rotarian" in Chicago, the international Rotary magazine. Krueger also congratulated the local man on his efforts and said use might be made of a story about the chart.

Until this week Herrmann said he had forgotten all about the article until a fellow club member showed him a copy of the November issue of "Timely Tips," a special Rotary International bulletin service dealing with outstanding club projects on a local level.

Included in the issue was a detailed story of Herrmann's chart and commendations from high Rotary officials on the effectiveness of the effort in promoting more club interest. Other clubs have already requested plans for using such a chart in their organizations.

CLUTTERED COURTHOUSE — Although it looked like the aftermath of an "Abandon Ship" call around the halls of the Pickaway County Courthouse yesterday, the end result of this pile of files will be a much more efficient operation of local government. The Auditor's office was invaded by workers and volunteer courthouse personnel cooperating with the county Historical Society in a mass removal of ancient and unneeded records. Many of the volumes will be preserved for future permanent historical display, while those of no value will be discarded. And part of the operation is the removal of antiquated files from the offices. (Photo by Ron Warren)

Fall League Grid Meeting Set Monday

As of tomorrow night the South Central Ohio League will have a 1961 All Star football squad — and as co-champions Circleville will be entitled to major representation on the loop "dream team."

A total of 22 players are to be selected by coaches of the eight league schools in a meeting at 7 p. m. Sunday in the Hotel Washington in Washington C. H., permanent gathering point for SCOL sessions. Eleven of the gridgers will be named to the offensive team and an equal number picked for the all-loop defense brigade.

Monday evening the annual SCOL fall dinner meeting will be conducted at the Washington Country Club. The All Stars are to be guests of honor, the first time such a team has been brought together for public acclaim. In the past members were simply notified of their selection.

Circleville and Washington C.H. representatives and special guests will accept trophies for the split 1961 championship. Richard Snuffer, CHS principal, is chairman of the principal's committee, governing body of the league. He will attend the Monday session. Between 90 and 100 coaches, aides, principals and superintendents from the affiliated schools, plus press representatives and special guests will attend.

A SHORT program is being arranged by principal William S. Rodgers of Franklin Heights and Principal Theodore Dagg of Pleasant View.

Schools in the loop include Circleville, Washington C. H., Hillsboro, Greenfield, Wilmington, Miami Trace, Pleasant View and Franklin Heights.

Stolen Auto Is Recovered

A stolen auto was found abandoned here early today by Circleville Police five minutes after it was reported missing.

Elmer E. Hutchinson, Route 1, Stoutsville, notified police at about 4:15 a. m. today that his 1961 model auto was missing from its parking place on E. Main St., near the Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

At 4:20 a. m. City Patrolman Richard Blaney discovered the vehicle abandoned in the Kroger Parking Lot, Lancaster Pike.

Hutchinson told officers the auto was taken between 3 and 4 a. m.

THE vehicle was damaged on the back side. Officers said it apparently was abandoned after the auto thief backed into another vehicle.

Police said the vehicle is in storage awaiting an investigation by the Bureau of Criminal Investigation of London.

Farm Bureau To Ask OK on New Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Policy Development Committee of the Ohio Farm Bureau will ask approval of a proposed cropland adjustment program at the Bureau's 43rd annual meeting here Monday through Wednesday.

The program, Bureau officials said at a news conference Friday, is designed as a balancing mechanism which could close the 5 per cent gap of production over consumption.

Points in the proposal include: Voluntary land retirement and free choice of crops on remaining acreage.

Technical programs to train rural persons for non-agricultural jobs

Price supports continued at the 1961 level.

Voluntary retirement of whole farms on a bid basis.

The program, as well as about 200 other tentative policies, will be presented to delegates Monday. Discussion and adoption is planned for the closing session Wednesday.

Purse Taken Here During Ball Game

A Columbus woman told Circleville Police last night her purse was ransacked while she was watching the football game at Circleville High School.

Mrs. Keitha Lambert said her purse was laying on the bleachers during the game.

Mrs. Lambert said a red billfold, containing papers and fifty cents, a cosmetic bag and car keys were missing from the purse.

Vehicle Registration In Ohio Up 92,533

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio motor vehicle registrations for the first eight months of 1961 totaled 4,367,218, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported today.

The registration and license fees brought in $76,203,755 in revenues, an increase of $598,217 over the previous year, the report stated. Passenger cars accounted for the major share of the total 92,533 increase in vehicle registration.

Prisoner . . .

of the building and made no attempt to stop them until Frey fell. Koblenz explained that other precautions had been taken which would have squelched the escape, but he declined to elaborate.

The corrections chief and the warden gave this account:

Shortly before 8 p. m. the prison population was in the auditorium watching a movie. The stashed escape paraphernalia had been found in the auditorium earlier but was left there while security precautions were put into effect.

Precautions included alerting city police and the Ohio Highway Patrol who apparently were staked out around the penitentiary. During the movie, Frey, Morgan and Cartwright slipped away on the pretense of going to a wash room.

They took the two sections of rope ladder—one 54 feet long and the other 12 feet long with a hook on the end of it.

They threw the hook-end of the rope ladder up the side of the cell block and caught it on the first of three window ledges, hoping to work their way to the roof ledge by ledge.

If they had reached the roof, Koblenz said, they had planned to go along the building top and slide down the outside wall.

Morgan, first man up the ladder, got to the second ledge. Frey followed him, got 25-30 feet up and then plunged to the ground.

A small pen knife and a pair of pliers were confiscated from the trio. They also had extra prison clothing with them.

Koblenz said no outside assistance was indicated. But he said Warden Maxwell, who assumed the job only a month ago, plans to investigate to determine if any others inside the prison were involved.

Both Frey and Morgan had been committed from Hamilton County in 1959, on May 27 and April 16, respectively.

No Solution Found To Finance Impasse

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — No conclusions on appropriations were reached after a two-hour, closed-door discussion between Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, his finance director and 10 members of the legislature Friday.

With the special session on appropriations opening Tuesday the situation remains "a question of either cutting the budget further or trying to find some additional revenues," Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, commented.

DiSalle summoned the lawmakers in advance of the session to give them what he termed up-to-date financial information based on a gloomy report by Finance Director James H. Maloon.

29 Students 'Repair' Damage to Corn Crops

KENTON, Ohio (AP)—It took 29 Kenton High School students four days to repair the damage they did to six Amish farms during Halloween.

The work consisted mainly of resetting 600 shocks of corn that had been toppled, and husking 400 shocks—by hand—that could not be restored.

The vandalism was done while the Amish farmers were in jail for failure to have proper lights on their buggies.

No Decision Made on Game Violation Case

H. W. Olds, Ohio Division of Wildlife official in Columbus, said today no action has been taken by his office concerning a Pickaway County game warden who was fined this week in Circleville Municipal Court for hunting on Sunday.

R. D. Kreis, 434 E. Franklin St., paid $25 and court costs Wednesday in Municipal Court for the hunting violation. The affidavit was filed by T. W. Overholzer, district No. 5 law enforcement supervisor.

Olds said he had requested a written account of the incident from the Chillicothe office. He said the report has not been received yet.

He indicated that any decision concerning Kreis's status with the Division of Wildlife rests in his hands. He said no decision will be made until a full report is received by his office.

Legalities Flood Vice Probe Judge

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP) — Judge Edward Hill, sitting by assignment, says it will take several days for him to go through a flood of motions growing out of indictments by the previous Campbell County grand jury.

Judge Hill of Harlan began studying the motions Thursday attacking validity of 80 indictments returned by the panel. He also sat as special judge in the grand jury sessions.

The 80 indictments involve 37 persons and were part of 145 true bills returned by the panel in a probe of possible conspiracy between officials and law violators.

Daniel Davies, attorney for some of those indicted, contended that if the indictments are upheld, "It would take 12 years to try all the cases."

Homemaker News

By MRS. KOLEEN WRIGHT
Home Economics Agent

Our snow flurries this week was a sure sign that winter is here. If you haven't got your electric blanket out yet, it is time to do so.

With an electric blanket you can have the warmth you select on the dial all night long, even though the room is cold. As the room cools more heat comes on automatically.

The heat cuts down as the room gets warmer. One electric blanket does the work of several regular ones.

Some may think that the care of an electric blanket would be difficult. By following the instructions, you should have no trouble.

FOLD the top sheet down over the blanket to protect it from unnecessary soil. Likewise, a lighter cover, such as a sheet, may be used over it to keep it clean.

Washing is the only way it can be cleaned since dry cleaning fluids may injure the insulation on the wires. Reliable laundries can do this quite satisfactorily. However, it is easy to do at home.

Special equipment is not needed. Hand washing and line drying in the shade on a clear dry day are often recommended. Many of the newer blankets may be washed most satisfactorily in an automatic washer and partially dried in a dryer.

Follow instructions for washing fine blankets. Measure blanket so it may be resized correctly. Treat any spots before washing. Brush binding with same type suds as used in the machine.

Fill machine with warm water. Add detergent or softener and soap. Operate machine to dissolve these. Push blanket down under water. Soak 10 minutes. Turn it once. Activate machine one minute. Advance dial to spin for 2 minutes only. Use fast speed. Refill machine for warm rinse. Add softener especially if soap was used. Activate machine one minute — spin 2 minutes. Repeat rinse if desired.

NEVER twist the blanket. If washing by hand do not put through the wringer.

Machine washed blankets may be line or dryer dried. Hand washed ones must be line dried, because they retain so much water.

In dryer drying use the blanket cycle, if your dryer is so equipped. Otherwise heat four or five bath towels 10 minutes with control set at highest temperature. Place towels in and around blanket and return to dryer for 15 minutes. Hang at once to continue drying in air.

In line drying, gently shape the blanket after the water has been removed. Vigorous stretching may break the wires. Hang lengthwise over two lines 12 to 18 inches apart. If lines are wrapped with old sheets or towels line marks may be prevented.

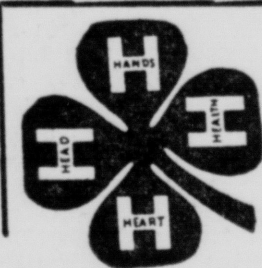

Use no pins. Hang in the shade — never in the sun. Select a clear dry day. As it dries, keep shaping so the wires will be straight. Turn it several times.

Brush it lengthwise when dry with soft brush to raise the nap.

PRESS the binding with a steam iron or dry iron set on low. A cloth between iron and satin may prevent shine.

Store it when clean in the box in which it comes, which provides space for the wires and control. Use no moth-proofing compound in washing — no balls or crystals in storage. Such products can have a harmful effect on the coating of the wires.

When a blanket is clean, there is little danger of damage due to insects.

4-H Club News

By EDWIN D. TAYLOR
County Extension Agent, 4-H

The project is the first requirement of 4-H club membership. All activities center here, making it the backbone of 4-H club work.

A member without a project would be like a ship without a rudder. He would have no central interest to steer his course of activity.

To become a 4-H club member a boy or girl must enroll in one of the 150 projects listed by the Ohio 4-H Club Department. Through his project work, he is taught improved practices which, in turn, serve as demonstrations for the community. He learns business principles by keeping required records.

By project is meant the animals raised and articles made by the members, or some other definite enterprise undertaken by members. The project should be one which fits well into the conditions of the community. It should be practical and provide some income, saving, education or satisfaction to the club member.

EACH club member must do personally the work required to complete the project selected, although when heavy work is involved, younger club members may have the help of adults.

In all production projects, each club member must have the animals or crops in his own name. If it is a partnership or share basis, the individual must have a definite arrangement with the other parties concerned, so that he is on his own responsibility and can make his own decisions about the care and management of his project.

Lower Rates On Insurance Of Crops Due

Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has announced that 1962-crop policies will provide farmer-policyholders increased all-risk coverage at generally lower premiums.

Corn and soybean producers will be guaranteed more bushels per acre and can qualify for larger indemnities under the recently expanded program designed to provide farmers with self-protection against the perils of their business.

The 1962 bushel-per-acre guarantees will average 14 per cent higher for corn and 6 per cent higher for soybeans. Meanwhile, in most counties, premiums are reduced an average of 5 per cent for corn and 8 per cent for soybeans.

"The improvements," explains Federal Crop Insurance Manager John Luft, "will help provide more farmers with an effective, low-cost way to protect the ever-increasing amounts of capital which they must invest each year to produce a crop."

More attractive rates and coverages, other officials add, are but part of a board program which already has taken big steps toward making crop insurance better reflect the risks of present-day farming.

One significant step is the introduction of a Production Guarantee Plan which permits a farmer, in effect, write his own policy. That is, he can select the dollar rate on which his indemnity will be based in event of a crop loss and pay a premium which is set accordingly. A loss occurs when his crop falls below the guaranteed yield and quality.

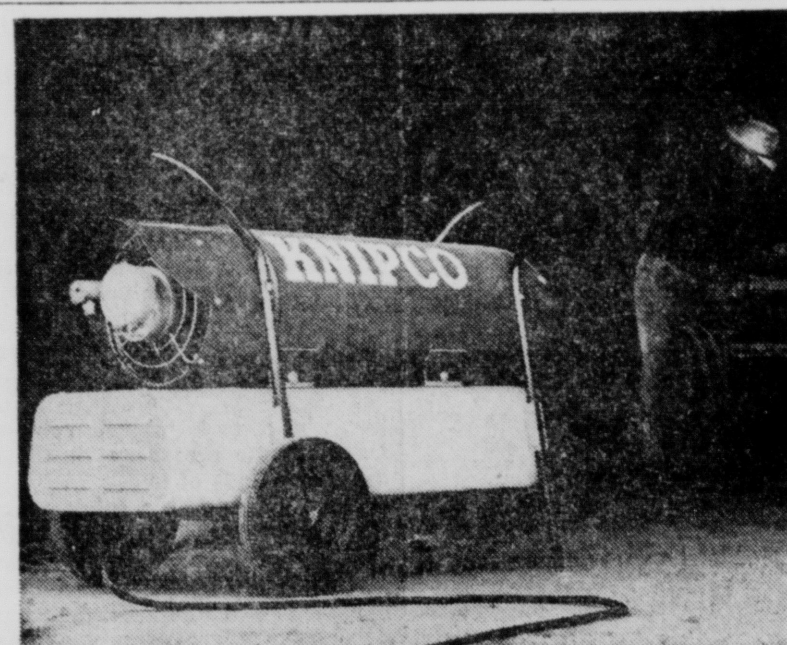

Initiated in most counties this year, officials say the new plan—coupled with increased coverage and reduced premiums—is again being offered on 1962 crops.

Driver Is Cited For Intoxication

A Hilliard motorist, accused of driving under the influence of intoxicants, was cited into Circleville Municipal Court yesterday.

Randall Skaggs, 26, was fined $150 and costs, sentenced to three days in the county jail and had his operator's license suspended for six months by Judge Sterling Lamb.

Skaggs was arrested by the State Highway Patrol.

Resorting of Hogs Study Conducted

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent, Agriculture

Because it is often necessary to move or regroup growing - finishing pigs one or more times before they reach market weight, the influence this may have on performance has been studied.

The results of an earlier trial suggests that either movement or resorting resulted in only slight reduction in rate of gain and that the most effect was a decrease in efficiency of feed conversion.

The experiment station has conducted additional trials to measure the effect of moving pigs from one pen to another or resorting them every 28 days. At Wooster, resorting resulted in a greater and more consistent lowering of performance than moving pigs from one pen to another.

In all trials pigs resorted required more feed per hundred pounds of gain, the difference ranging from an average of 5.5 to as much as 19 pounds of feed.

EXCEPT for generally slower gains in one trial over the other, antibiotics in the feed appeared to make little difference in pig performance.

At South Charleston, in a single trial, the effect of resorting on performance was similar to that observed at Wooster.

Results of these trials serve only as an indication of what effect such management procedures might have with larger numbers of pigs of different breeding and feeding conditions. However, the consistency with which feed requirements were increased suggests that undue handling should be avoided.

EACH club member must do personally the work required to complete the project selected, although when heavy work is involved, younger club members may have the help of adults.

In all production projects, each club member must have the animals or crops in his own name. If it is a partnership or share basis, the individual must have a definite arrangement with the other parties concerned, so that he is on his own responsibility and can make his own decisions about the care and management of his project.

READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

Leaders should help club members select projects best suited to their individual conditions. Young club members should not undertake more than one project a year, but older ones find it desirable to carry several projects. ## Lower Rates On Insurance Of Crops Due

Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has announced that 1962-crop policies will provide farmer-policyholders increased all-risk coverage at generally lower premiums.

Corn and soybean producers will be guaranteed more bushels per acre and can qualify for larger indemnities under the recently expanded program designed to provide farmers with self-protection against the perils of their business.

The 1962 bushel-per-acre guarantees will average 14 per cent higher for corn and 6 per cent higher for soybeans. Meanwhile, in most counties, premiums are reduced an average of 5 per cent for corn and 8 per cent for soybeans.

"The improvements," explains Federal Crop Insurance Manager John Luft, "will help provide more farmers with an effective, low-cost way to protect the ever-increasing amounts of capital which they must invest each year to produce a crop."

More attractive rates and coverages, other officials add, are but part of a board program which already has taken big steps toward making crop insurance better reflect the risks of present-day farming.

One significant step is the introduction of a Production Guarantee Plan which permits a farmer, in effect, write his own policy. That is, he can select the dollar rate on which his indemnity will be based in event of a crop loss and pay a premium which is set accordingly. A loss occurs when his crop falls below the guaranteed yield and quality.

Initiated in most counties this year, officials say the new plan—coupled with increased coverage and reduced premiums—is again being offered on 1962 crops.

Driver Is Cited For Intoxication

A Hilliard motorist, accused of driving under the influence of intoxicants, was cited into Circleville Municipal Court yesterday.

Randall Skaggs, 26, was fined $150 and costs, sentenced to three days in the county jail and had his operator's license suspended for six months by Judge Sterling Lamb.

Skaggs was arrested by the State Highway Patrol.

Resorting of Hogs Study Conducted

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

Because it is often necessary to move or regroup growing-finishing pigs one or more times before they reach market weight, the influence this may have on performance has been studied.

The results of an earlier trial suggests that either movement or resorting resulted in only slight reduction in rate of gain and that the most effect was a decrease in efficiency of feed conversion.

The experiment station has conducted additional trials to measure the effect of moving pigs from one pen to another or resorting them every 28 days. At Wooster, resorting resulted in a greater and more consistent lowering of performance than moving pigs from one pen to another.

In all trials pigs resorted required more feed per hundred pounds of gain, the difference ranging from an average of 5.5 to as much as 19 pounds of feed.

EXCEPT for generally slower gains in one trial over the other, antibiotics in the feed appeared to make little difference in pig performance.

At South Charleston, in a single trial, the effect of resorting on performance was similar to that observed at Wooster.

Results of these trials serve only as an indication of what effect such management procedures might have with larger numbers of pigs of different breeding and feeding conditions. However, the consistency with which feed requirements were increased suggests that undue handling should be avoided.

Here's a high production "Booster Feed" that will increase production levels of dairy and beef cattle!

Red Rose RUMENATOR

This ration is an excellent booster feed or appetizer for dairy and beef animals of all ages. Fortified with vitamins A, D8, and E, animal fat and minerals, Red Rose Ruminator supplies high levels of available energy to keep herds in top condition, maintain a natural vigor, and increase milk production. It's a "nutrition-saturated" complete dairy feed that gives an "energy and vitamin lift" to any dairy or beef feeding program. Try it, and you will agree with other dairymen that Red Rose Ruminator is "just the dairy feed you have been looking for."

- Improves appetites
- Improves milk production
- Dairy cows stay at peak production longer
- Glossier haircoats, thinner skin
- Gets cows in better condition for calving
- Young stock grow faster — are more vigorous

Shuttle Service

An airline travel speeds up between terminal cities, and travel from airport to downtown is slowed by congested traffic, those in the helicopter industry are sure they have the answer. Shuttle service by helicopter is now available only in Los Angeles, New York and Chicago.

The industry is confident it will spread rapidly to other airports. Applications for helicopter service are pending in many cities.

Growth of automobile usage tells the story. In 1945 there were 31 million motor car registrations and 313,000 miles of city streets and expressways. Now registrations total 70 million but metropolitan area roadways have increased only 20 per cent.

One remedy would be to increase expressways to the point that they would be adequate for the crush of urban vehicles. But the cost of arterials is such that few cities can afford what they need.

So helicopter manufacturers are certain they are destined to alleviate congestion so far as travel to and from airports is concerned. The helicopter can, of course, serve in other ways by riding over congestion instead of battling through it.

Thus another dimension will be added to the traffic pattern of the nation.

Questionable Definition

By George Sokolsky

I am not a book reviewer and shall probably get into some violent argument over "An Answer to Goldwater," which should be reviewed by someone who has nothing else to do. However, the publisher sent me this book without any request on my part and I assume that an unfavorable review sells as many books as a favorable one. In fact, an author once wrote to me asking that I attack his book as he thought that that would bring it circulation. I declined to perpetrate such an outrage.

"An Answer to Goldwater" was written by Millard L. Howell, Professor of American History, Evening College, Drexel Institute of Technology. Professor Howell devotes a page to "The Meaning of Liberalism" and that ought to start an argument, no Liberal agreeing with another, each having a definition of his own for the truth of which he will fight a battle of verbal violence.

Professor Howell's definition is: "Real American Liberalism is the incorporation of man's innate rights and duties in contractual form in order to procure the best in life for the American people. This recognizes the democratic principle of majority rule with due recognition and respect for the rights of the minority."

"A real Liberal knows that a self-regulatory economy can produce nothing of permanent value. The opposite of the American-liberal way of life is the reactionary form of government, represented by the Conservatives. The results of a reactionary government redound to the benefit of a small group of extremely wealthy people who rebel at government which represents all of the people rather than this small selfish group of the sons of Midas. A Liberal adheres to our Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

"A Liberal-American's creed is equality of opportunity. Our aim is to preserve our capitalistic system and to oppose any Communist or reactionary attempt to destroy it."

The first sentence puzzles me as a definition. For instance, what are man's innate rights? Let us say that we are referring to a cannibal—what are his innate rights? Or is this definition limited to an American?

Surely an Uzbek has no innate rights which Soviet Russia recognizes as such. The Declaration of Independence recognizes that man possesses unalienable rights which come to him from Nature's God and Nature's Law. But are those rights innate as, for example, the genes are innate?

Let us go a step further. The professor himself finds his way to Rousseau and discovers "man's innate rights and duties in contractual form."

But where does government exist by contract? Government is the imposition of a rule of life and law either by force or accepted by consent. The American theory is government by choice which is unrelated to majority rule. In fact, throughout American history, power has been expressed by a vocal and powerful minority, the majority never asserting itself. The Constitution at no place delegates rights to the majority but rather protects the individual from the tyranny of the majority.

The Fifth and Fourteenth

Amendments, in particular, defend the rights of one human being from the possibility of control and domination by a majority. Majority rule is authorized nowhere in the Constitution. In fact, provision is made for the choice of the President by the Electoral College, for the choice of Senators by state legislatures, by the appointment of the Federal Judiciary for life—to avoid majority rule.

A statement that the opposite of the American liberal way of life is the reactionary form of government seems to me nonsense. The adjective, reactionary, is not explained. Dozens of forms of government exist which are not in any way replicas of the "American liberal way of life," and they serve their people advantageously. It all depends upon local conditions and needs.

The word, reactionary, means colloquially a restoration of a condition or procedure which existed at some prior time. It could be a reaction to current demands for change. Is the government of France under DeGaulle progressive or reactionary? He is apparently attempting to establish stability after the political chaos following World War II and the miseries brought on by the liberalism of proportional representation. Or is the current government of Ghana progressive, liberal or reactionary? Or is it indescribable?

I did not read further in the professor's book because this attempt to adjective liberalism was enough for me. That definition would describe Barry Goldwater as a liberal which would be offensive to him.

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.
Would you like to be rich? Study medicine!

A doctor's riches can't be measured in dollars and cents. What's worth more than the toothless grin of a wrinkled, aging face when you hold out new hope? Or the victory after an all-night vigil with a ghostly, half-dead child?

How can you measure the gratitude of a crippled teenager whose leg-lengthening operation helped her win a rock 'n' roll contest? Or a simple discovery that may save thousands of lives?

A few hours with a suicidebound college girl seems extra-valuable when she's married and raising six happy youngsters years later. Anxious mothers, screaming earaches, early cancers, longfaced ulcers, swollen joints, even those lobster-red sunburns — every cure, every soothed pain, every new smile makes you feel good all over!

You don't work alone. Into every patient goes the knowledge of hundreds of teachers and research specialists. You'll find a little Freud in all psychiatric treatment, a bit of Sir Alexander Flemming in every penicillin shot and some of Doctors Salk and Enders in every vial of polio vaccine. Medical careers fit every personality. If you like people, you'll love office hours. Scientists can explore life's secrets in research centers. Teaching can bring your knowledge to millions of patients. Addicted to capable, hardworking students, medical schools crave more and more. But don't apply unless you have determination and guts!

You have to work and study nights and weekends, when everyone else is off having fun. Can you face dangerous germs and violent patients without cringing? Are you strong enough to carry the burden of a life-or-death decision? Remember, that comfortable income and M.D. status symbol can tarnish overnight. But if you want real rewards, locked inside your heart where they can't tarnish, join the medical fraternity! Dr. Fern's mailbox is wide open for letters from readers. While he cannot undertake to answer individual letters, he will use readers' questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Fern in care of this newspaper.

GOP Pooh-Poohs dem Cries Over Ohio Financial Status

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Republican legislative leaders discount the alarm professed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's administration over Ohio's financial health. GOP spokesmen, while admitting that money problems are complex, are inclined to view Democratic warnings as propaganda intended to help DiSalle's push for his programs on a higher tax spending level.

Unless sentiment takes a decided shift, the financial session of the legislature opening Tuesday may mark time until the revenue picture clears.

That could mean a recess by next Friday to take fiscal soundings until after Thanksgiving or even the year-end holidays.

Otherwise, a determined legislature could enact an appropriations bill and take final adjournment. The session results from DiSalle's unprecedented veto of appropriations he termed inadequate to run the state for the last half of the two-year bookkeeping period starting July 1.

No attempt to override the veto is planned. Instead, a new appropriation measure has been drafted for introduction in the House. The bill carries $1,023,848,220, virtually the total vetoed but with some internal changes.

Senators plan to take a third crack at a $40 million capital improvements bill defeated in the windup of the regular session Aug. 1 and again at a Sept. 22 special session called by DiSalle.

House Speaker Roster Cloud, R-Logan, said action has been urged on a score of other matters but that only some municipal court changes appeared likely to receive serious attention.

Some cities want new municipal courts created and others want the jurisdiction of present courts expanded, he explained.

Finance Director James H. Maloon recently told DiSalle the state might run out of cash temporarily early next year because of a lag in sales tax collections after stamps are dropped Jan. 1.

The finance chief explained that retailers now pay the tax in advance by purchasing stamps. Without the stamps, the tax can be paid after it is collected. The legislature offered vendors a one per cent bonus for prepayment after stamps are abandoned but Maloon said it is uncertain how many would seek the bonus. He added that the state ultimately would save money by doing away with the stamps.

But any sizable lag, Maloon

warned, might leave the state unable for a time to pay bills, meet payrolls or allow subsidies.

Such a situation, he said, could mark the first time for Ohio to run out of cash since the depression '30s, except for a couple of days in 1959.

Maloon also reported that during the first quarter of fiscal 1961-62, ended last September, state revenues fell $7.3 million below estimates and spending exceeded estimates by $5.7 million.

He added that Controlling Board transfers from appropriations for later quarters—for welfare spending in the first quarter—were at the rate of $2.7 million a year. He recalled that the legislature in regular session voted a welfare deficiency appropriation of $7.5 million and that the 1959 legislature made up a $15.3 million deficiency for poor relief and aid for the aged.

Cloud said Controlling Board transfers were made at the request of the DiSalle administration.

He displayed a letter from Welfare Director Mary Gorman that said transfers from fourth quarter funds would permit four payments in the first quarter for aid to the blind, disabled and for dependent children so that only two payments for those services would be needed in the fourth quarter.

"The real problem," Cloud asserted, "is that revenues are not up to estimates and that expenditures are greater."

He added that figures from Maloon did not reflect increased consumer buying last month which could brighten the state's revenue picture.

"Every group that wants more money picks out the figures that support its arguments," Cloud observed. "The other figures simply are ignored."

He asserted that seminars held by DiSalle are designed "primarily to propagandize on the state's financial situation."

"The governor's professed irritation toward this legislature has resulted from its refusal to raise the spending level of the state to the degree which he desired and its refusal to add . . . to the $200 million general fund tax increase enacted in the last (1959) session," Cloud said.

The current legislature provided what Cloud termed substantial increases for schools, universities, mental hygiene and welfare programs over those of two years ago. Operating appropriations from tax sources, exclusive of student fees, were increased for all six state universities, he added.

"Governor DiSalle sent two appropriation bills to this legislature for introduction," Cloud related. "He was critical when the legislature did not introduce them as submitted."

"If the legislature had adopted them, and if the state had spent the recommended amounts, another general fund tax increase of at least $150 million would have been required in this two-year fiscal period."

"The governor made no recommendations as to where these increased revenues should be obtained."

DiSalle said also he planned no recommendations for the forthcoming financial session.

Haul by Revenues Includes Gas Pump

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Georgia revenue agents during October arrested 416 persons and seized 285 stills, one mule, one wheelbarrow, a wagon—and a gas pump.

In reporting the unusual haul Thursday Revenue Commissioner Dixon Oxford said: "I don't know why they picked up that gas pump. Moonshiners must have been using it around some still."

Shuttle Service

An airline travel speeds up between terminal cities, and travel from airport to downtown is slowed by congested traffic, those in the helicopter industry are sure they have the answer. Shuttle service by helicopter is now available only in Los Angeles, New York and Chicago.

The industry is confident it will spread rapidly to other airports. Applications for helicopter service are pending in many cities.

Growth of automobile usage tells the story. In 1945 there were 31 million motor car registrations and 313,000 miles of city streets and expressways. Now registrations total 70 million but metropolitan area roadways have increased only 20 per cent.

One remedy would be to increase expressways to the point that they would be adequate for the crush of urban vehicles. But the cost of arterials is such that few cities can afford what they need.

So helicopter manufacturers are certain they are destined to alleviate congestion so far as travel to and from airports is concerned. The helicopter can, of course, serve in other ways by riding over congestion instead of battling through it.

Thus another dimension will be added to the traffic pattern of the nation.

Questionable Definition

By George Sokolsky

I am not a book-reviewer and shall probably get into some violent argument over "An Answer To Goldwater," which should be revived by someone who has nothing else to do. However, the publisher sent me this book without any request on my part and I assume that an unfavorable review sells as many books as a favorable one. In fact, an author once wrote to me asking that I attack his book as he thought that that would bring it circulation. I declined to perpetrate such an outrage.

"An Answer To Goldwater" was written by Millard L. Howell, Professor of American History, Evening College, Drexel Institute of Technology. Professor Howell devotes a page to "The Meaning of Liberalism" and that ought to start an argument, no Liberal agreeing with another, each having a definition of his own for the truth of which he will fight a battle of verbal violence.

Professor Howell's definition is: "Real American Liberalism is the incorporation of man's innate rights and duties in contractual form in order to procure the best in life for the American people. This recognizes the democratic principle of majority rule with due recognition and respect for the rights of the minority."

"A real Liberal knows that a self-regulatory economy can produce nothing of permanent value. The opposite of the American-liberal way of life is the reactionary form of government, represented by the Conservatives. The results of a reactionary government redound to the benefit of a small group of extremely wealthy people who rebel at government which represents all of the people rather than this small selfish group of the sons of Midas. A Liberal adheres to our Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

"A Liberal-American's creed is equality of opportunity. Our aim is to preserve our capitalist system and to oppose any Communist or reactionary attempt to destroy it."

The first sentence puzzles me as a definition. For instance, what are man's innate rights? Let us say that we are referring to a cannibal—what are his innate rights? Or is this definition limited to an American?

Surely an Uzbek has no innate rights which Soviet Russia recognizes as such. The Declaration of Independence recognizes that man possesses unalienable rights which come to him from Nature's God and Nature's Law. But are those rights innate as, for example, the genes are innate?

Let us go a step further. The professor himself finds his way to Rousseau and discovers "man's innate rights and duties in contractual form."

But where does government exist by contract? Government is the imposition of a rule of life and law either by force or accepted by consent. The American theory is government by choice which is unrelated to majority rule. In fact, throughout American history, power has been expressed by a vocal and powerful minority, the majority never asserting itself. The Constitution at no place delegates rights to the majority but rather protects the individual from the tyranny of the majority.

The Fifth and Fourteenth

Amendments, in particular, defend the rights of one human being from the possibility of control and domination by a majority. Majority rule is authorized nowhere in the Constitution. In fact, provision is made for the choice of the President by the Electoral College, for the choice of Senators by state legislatures, by the appointment of the Federal Judiciary for life—to avoid majority rule.

A statement that the opposite of the American liberal way of life is the reactionary form of government seems to me nonsense. The adjective, reactionary, is not explained. Dozens of forms of government exist which are not in any way replicas of the "American-liberal way of life," and they serve their people advantageously. It all depends upon local conditions and needs.

The word, reactionary, means colloquially a restoration of a condition or procedure which existed at some prior time. It could be a reaction to current demands for change. Is the government of France under DeGaulle progressive or reactionary? He is apparently attempting to establish stability after the political chaos following World War II and the miseries brought on by the liberalism of proportional representation. Or is the current government of Ghana progressive, liberal or reactionary? Or is it indescribable?

I did not read further in the professor's book because this attempt to adjective liberalism was enough for me. That definition would describe Barry Goldwater as a liberal which would be offensive to him.

NOTICE OF MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO SHAREHOLDERS OF THE First National Bank of Circleville, Ohio

Notice is given that a meeting of the shareholders of this bank has been called by the Board of Directors to convene at the banking office located at 102 East Main Street, Circleville, Ohio on the 14th day of November, 1961, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of considering and voting upon the following matters:

(a) To increase of the common stock of the bank to $143,000 by the issuance of a $13,000 stock dividend, in connection with which the par value of the stock will be changed to $25 per share. The shareholders, of record on the date of the adoption of that resolution, will be entitled to share in the dividends in proportion to their respective holdings of common stock of the bank on that date.

(b) To further increase of the common stock of the bank to $143,000 by the sale of additional shares, at a sale price of not less than $25 each, of not less than $75 each. The shareholders, of record on the date of the adoption of that resolution, will be entitled to share in the dividends in proportion to their respective holdings of common stock of the bank on that date.

(c) The adoption of a complete new set of articles of association of the bank in a revised form which will provide in article Third for a sliding scale of from five to twenty-five directors, in article Sixth for the identification of directors, officers and employees of the bank under certain conditions, and in article Eighth for the calling of all annual as well as special shareholders' meetings with a notice of at least ten days by first-class mail.

C. C. Schwarz, Cashier
Nov. 2 to 13 daily.

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.

Would you like to be rich? Study medicine!

A doctor's riches can't be measured in dollars and cents. What's worth more than the toothless grin of a wrinkled, aging face when you hold out new hope? Or the victory after an all-night vigil with a ghostly, half-dead child?

How can you measure the gratitude of a crippled teenager whose leg-lengthening operation helped her win a rock 'n' roll contest? Or a simple discovery that may save thousands of lives?

A few hours with a suicidebound college girl seems extra-valuable when she's married and raising six happy youngsters years later. Anxious mothers, screaming earaches, early cancers, long-faced ulcers, swollen joints, even those lobster-red sunburns—every cure, every soothing pain, every new smile makes you feel good all over!

You don't work alone. Into every patient goes the knowledge of hundreds of teachers and research specialists. You'll find a little Freud in all psychiatric treatment, a bit of Sir Alexander Flemming in every penicillin shot and some of Doctors Salk and Enders in every vial of polio vaccine. Medical careers fit every personality. If you like people, you'll love office hours. Scientists can explore life's secrets in research centers. Teaching can bring your knowledge to millions of patients. Addicted to capable, hardworking students, medical schools crave more and more. But don't apply unless you have determination and guts!

You have to work and study nights and weekends, when everyone else is off having fun. Can you face dangerous germs and violent patients without cringing? Are you strong enough to carry the burden of a life-or-death decision? Remember, that comfortable income and M.D. status symbol can tarnish overnight. But if you want real rewards, locked inside your heart where they can't tarnish, join the medical fraternity!

Dr. Fern's mailbox is wide open for letters from readers. While he cannot undertake to answer individual letters, he will use readers' questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Fern in care of this newspaper.

GOP Pooh-Poohs dem Cries Over Ohio Financial Status

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Republican legislative leaders discount the alarm professed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's administration over Ohio's financial health. GOP spokesmen, while admitting that money problems are complex, are inclined to view Democratic warnings as propaganda intended to help DiSalle's push for his programs on a higher tax spending level.

Unless sentiment takes a decided shift, the financial session of the legislature opening Tuesday may mark time until the revenue picture clears.

That could mean a recess by next Friday to take fiscal soundings until after Thanksgiving or even the year-end holidays.

Otherwise, a determined legislature could enact an appropriations bill and take final adjournment.

The session results from DiSalle's unprecedented veto of appropriations he termed inadequate to run the state for the last half of the two-year bookkeeping period starting July 1.

No attempt to override the veto is planned. Instead, a new appropriation measure has been drafted for introduction in the House. The bill carries $1,023,848,220, virtually the total vetoed but with some internal changes.

Senators plan to take a third crack at a $40 million capital improvements bill defeated in the windup of the regular session Aug. 1 and again at a Sept. 22 special session called by DiSalle.

House Speaker Roster Cloud, R-Logan, said action has been urged on a score of other matters but that only some municipal court changes appeared likely to receive serious attention.

Some cities want new municipal courts created and others want the jurisdiction of present courts expanded, he explained.

Finance Director James H. Maloon recently told DiSalle the state might run out of cash temporarily early next year because of a lag in sales tax collections after stamps are dropped Jan. 1.

The finance chief explained that retailers now pay the tax in advance by purchasing stamps. Without the stamps, the tax can be paid after it is collected. The legislature offered vendors a one-per-cent bonus for prepayment after stamps are abandoned but Maloon said it is uncertain how many would seek the bonus. He added that the state ultimately would save money by doing away with the stamps.

But any sizable lag, Maloon

warned, might leave the state unable for a time to pay bills, meet payrolls or allow subsidies.

Such a situation, he said, could mark the first time for Ohio to run out of cash since the depression '30s, except for a couple of days in 1959.

Maloon also reported that during the first quarter of fiscal 1961-62, ended last September, state revenues fell $7.3 million below estimates and spending exceeded estimates by $5.7 million.

He added that Controlling Board transfers from appropriations for later quarters—for welfare spending in the first quarter—were at the rate of $2.7 million a year. He recalled that the legislature in regular session voted a welfare deficiency appropriation of $7.5 million and that the 1959 legislature made up a $15.3 million deficiency for poor relief and aid for the aged.

Cloud said Controlling Board transfers were made at the request of the DiSalle administration.

He displayed a letter from Welfare Director Mary Gorman that said transfers from fourth quarter funds would permit four payments in the first quarter for aid to the blind, disabled and for dependent children so that only two payments for those services would be needed in the fourth quarter.

"The real problem," Cloud asserted, "is that revenues are not up to estimates and that expenditures are greater."

He added that figures from Maloon did not reflect increased consumer buying last month which could brighten the state's revenue picture.

"Every group that wants more money picks out the figures that support its arguments," Cloud observed. "The other figures simply are ignored."

He asserted that seminars held by DiSalle are designed "primarily to propagandize on the state's financial situation."

"The governor's professed irritation toward this legislature has resulted from its refusal to raise the spending level of the state to the degree which he desired and its refusal to add . . . to the $200 million general fund tax increase enacted in the last (1959) session," Cloud said.

The current legislature provided what Cloud termed substantial increases for schools, universities, mental hygiene and welfare programs over those of two years ago. Operating appropriations from tax sources, exclusive of student fees, were increased for all six state universities, he added.

"Governor DiSalle sent two appropriation bills to this legislature for introduction," Cloud related. "He was critical when the legislature did not introduce them as submitted."

"If the legislature had adopted them, and if the state had spent the recommended amounts, another general fund tax increase of at least $150 million would have been required in this two-year fiscal period."

"The governor made no recommendations as to where these increased revenues should be obtained."

DiSalle said also he planned no recommendations for the forthcoming financial session.

Haul by Revenues Includes Gas Pump

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Georgia revenue agents during October arrested 416 persons and seized 285 stills, one mule, one wheelbarrow, a wagon—and a gas pump.

In reporting the unusual haul Thursday Revenue Commissioner Dixon Oxford said: "I don't know why they picked up that gas pump. Moonshiners must have been using it around some still."

Miss Shull, Mr. Mast Exchange Marriage Vows

MRS. WILBUR EDWARD MAST

An evening wedding in Emanuel Lutheran Church, Lancaster, on Saturday, Nov. 4, united in marriage Miss Elinor Kathleen Shull and Wilbur Edward Mast. The Rev. A. C. Hahn read the ceremony at 7:30 before an altar decorated with colorful chrysanthemums and palms. Pews were marked with white satin bows and huckleberry foliage.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Carl G. Shull, 510 Eastwood Ave., Lancaster, and the late Mr. Shull. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mast, Route 3.

Mrs. Margaret Armstrong served as organist and Ralph Bay, vocalist, offered several numbers including "The Lord's Prayer".

For her wedding, the bride wore a beautiful gown of candlelight brocade satin, which she designed and made. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline and short sleeves, and the full length flared skirt with a bow in the back, was accented by shirred scallops.

A crown of seed pearls and crystals held her imported veil of French illusion. She carried a prayer book, covered to match the dress and topped with a white orchid.

Miss Marie Novotny, Tonawanda, N. Y., was maid of honor and wore a street length dress of sapphire blue acollade taffeta, designed similar to that of the bride. Her bow hat was fashioned of matching material and she carried a colonial bouquet of white mums.

Bryan Dunkel, nephew of the bridegroom served as ring bearer. Robert Mast, Zanesville, was best man for his cousin and guests ional meeting will be held in Chillicothe for District No. 9 members of the Ohio Assn. of Garden Clubs. On Nov. 27 at 8:00 p. m., the Pickaway County Council of Garden Clubs will sponsor an open meeting and tea in the Derby Methodist Church. The meeting theme, "Holiday Demonstration", will be presented by four state-accredited judges of the OAGC, Mrs. Allen Grossman, Mrs. Vance Hendricks, Mrs. Ralph Near and Mrs. DeVoss. The Derby Garden Club will serve as hostess.

The Columbus Wellesley Club tour of seven homes in Bexley will be conducted from 1:5 p. m. Nov. 28.

The Franklin County Council of Garden Clubs will present William Stone of Columbus who will present a holiday program Nov. 29 in the Park of Roses. Mr. Stone will conduct an open house Dec. 5 in Columbus.

The Darby Valley Garden Club will sponsor a tour and decorate four homes Dec. 7 from 1:3 p. m. and 7-9 p. m.

The Fairfield Garden Club will sponsor a meeting on the theme "Holly and Thyme at Your House and Mine", in the First Methodist Church at Lancaster. These shows and demonstrations will be open to the public. The Judges Council will adjourn until March.

Miss Lindsey Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Jo Ann Spice and Mrs. Warren Grover were co-hostesses recently for a bridal shower given in honor of Miss Donna Jane Lindsey, bride-elect of Mr. David Smith.

An umbrella, decorated with red, pink and white ribbons, was placed over a table where gifts were displayed.

Games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Emma Martin and Mrs. Dale Diltz who presented their prizes to the honored guest.

A dessert course was served to the following:

Mrs. Lyman Lindsey, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Dale Diltz, Miss Lillian Wagner, Mrs. Ralph Curtin, Mrs. Emma Martin, Mrs. Charles W. Walker, Mrs. David Walker, Mrs. Stanley Shirley, Mrs. Fred Cupp and Barbara, Mrs. Raymond Goodman and Amy Lou Gover.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Myrtle Lockard and Mrs. Bud Pauley.

Mrs. Bausum Hostess At Bridal Shower

Miss Karen Warner was honored guest at a bridal shower Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Bausum, Ashville.

Contests and games were conducted and prizes awarded. The honored guest opened her gifts at a shower table decorated with a pink and white sprinkling can with bell arrangements.

The Misses Janet and Brenda Bausum assisted their mother in serving a dessert course to the following guests: Mrs. Everett Peters, Mrs. Nelson Warner, Mrs. Robert Knode, Mrs. Otis Leist, Mrs. Wilma Warner, Mrs. Jerome Warner and Mrs. Ray Hifner.

Mrs. William Wharton, Mrs. Joe Hedges, Mrs. Robert Barr, Mrs. Nolo Gulick, Mrs. Homer Bausum and the guest of honor.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Warren Brown, Miss Bonnie Brown, Mrs. Ben Nothesteine, Mrs. John Heffner, Mrs. Charles Niles, Mrs. Maynard Warner, Mrs. Lloyd Wardel and Miss Linda Wardell.

Mr. Rihl Honored At Birthday Fete

Mr. C. H. Rihl, of Mount Sterling, was honored guest at a birthday party in his home Sunday. The festivities were held to celebrate Mr. Rihl's 80th birthday. Mr. Rihl, a lifelong resident of this area and a farmer for more than 40 years, was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and cards.

Ice cream and cake were served to the guests by Mrs. Rihl's wife, Estella, and daughter, Mary Alice.

Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rihl; Jessie Mogen; Mrs. Harvey Akers and daughters, Linda and Gwen, all of Columbus; Mrs. Edna Giffin of Grove City; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rihl and daughter, Sue, of Circleville; Mrs. Cook Metzger and sons, Randy, Rick and Darren; Mrs. Maude Rihl; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose and son, Byron, all of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCulla and children, Cheryl, Jeff, Lisa and Kelly, of Frankfort; Mrs. Vonna Rasor and Jerry Rasor, of Commercial Point.

Garden Club Meet Held At Columbus

Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner of the Deercreek Garden Club and Mrs. Donald H. Watt, president of the Circleville Garden Club, recently attended a lecture-demonstration conducted by Mrs. Lelda Wyatt Schulke, of Breckville, at the Riverside Methodist Church in Columbus.

The event was sponsored by the Upper Arlington Garden Council. Over 300 people attended the lecture-demonstration on the theme, "Trim The House for Christmas".

The Franklin County Council of Garden Clubs will present William Stone of Columbus who will present a holiday program Nov. 29 in the Park of Roses. Mr. Stone will conduct an open house Dec. 5 in Columbus.

The Darby Valley Garden Club will sponsor a tour and decorate four homes Dec. 7 from 1:3 p. m. and 7-9 p. m.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Code of Ethics on Tattling

DEAR ABBY: In our class at school we got into a big discussion about "tattling" and we would like to know how you feel about the subject. Thank you.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
DEAR STUDENTS: For some reason, teachers and even parents teach young people that it is "unethical" or downright disgraceful for one child to tell someone in authority that another child has disobeyed, misbehaved or even broken the law. Is it any wonder we have hoodlums and vandals who count it a virtue not to "squeal"?

This is not to be confused with running to Mamma or the teacher with, "Johnny hit me!" If children are to grow up with a sense of civic duty, they cannot be taught that it is "Noble" to remain silent when they know who has destroyed public property or committed other serious anti-social acts. (It is their parents who must pay for such deeds). Also it is unfair that a guilty child should "get by" unpunished; the next time he will try something a little bolder. I think it is time we adults reviewed our attitude on "tattling."

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I rented this apartment, we specifically asked if we could keep our dog with us. The landlord said, "Yes, if the dog is quiet and well-behaved." Our dog is quiet and well-behaved, unless a stranger comes around. We have been here less than a month and the landlord tells us we can't keep our dog. He said, "You have a full-grown boxer, and to me a boxer is not a dog, but a 'pony'." We signed a year's lease and like this place. Can he make us move? And is a boxer a dog or a horse?

JUST MOVED IN
DEAR JUST: If your boxer raises Ned whenever a "stranger comes around," he is being far from "quiet and well-behaved." You don't need a dictionary, you need a lawyer.

DEAR ABBY: I am amused by some of the women who write to you and ask your help to get them a man. I am an unmarried man, alone, retired and live in my own home on a lake—rather secluded—and have ample income for two. I have placed blind ads in papers and magazines and have answered others—61 to be exact. I have visited their miserable apartments and have yet to find a lady who will live more than four blocks from a bus line.

NOT LOOKING

AND JOE: Heaven can wait. Graduate!

Miss Shull, Mr. Mast Exchange Marriage Vows

MRS. WILBUR EDWARD MAST

An evening wedding in Emanuel Lutheran Church, Lancaster, on Saturday, Nov. 4, united in marriage Miss Elinor Kathleen Shull and Wilbur Edward Mast. The Rev. A. C. Hahn read the ceremony at 7:30 before an altar decorated with colorful chrysanthemums and palms. Pews were marked with white satin bows and huckleberry foliage.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Carl G. Shull, 510 Eastwood Ave., Lancaster, and the late Mr. Shull. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mast, Route 3. Mrs. Margaret Armstrong served as organist and Ralph Bay, vocalist, offered several numbers including "The Lord's Prayer".

For her wedding, the bride wore a beautiful gown of candlelight brocade satin, which she designed and made. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline and short sleeves, and the full length flared skirt with a bow in the back, was accented by shirred scallops.

A crown of seed pearls and crystals held her imported veil of French illusion. She carried a prayer book, covered to match the dress and topped with a white orchid.

Miss Marie Novotny, Tonawanda, N. Y., was maid of honor and wore a street length dress of sapphire blue acollade taffeta, designed similar to that of the bride. Her bow hat was fashioned of matching material and she carried a colonial bouquet of white mums.

Bryan Dunkel, nephew of the bridegroom served as ring bearer. Robert Mast, Zanesville, was best man for his cousin and guests were seated by Robert Lutz, Waverly, John Hollingsworth, Reynoldsburg and Frank Coon, Ashville.

Mrs. Shull chose for her daughter's wedding a stylish frock of treasure blue brocade satin with hat and gloves to match. Mrs. Mast, mother of the bridegroom, was in a dress of periwinkle blue crepe, with matching accessories. Eash had a corsage of Cymbidium orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social room with Mrs. H. Miller Dunkel, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Ruth Novotny, Mrs. Robert Lutz, Miss Patty Woltz and Mrs. Willard Snyder as hostesses.

The buffet table was centered with a tiered wedding cake decorated with pale pink roses, pink flowers and huckleberry foliage.

When Mr. and Mrs. Mast left later in the day for a wedding trip to New York City, the bride donned a charcoal gray dress, with which she combined a sapphire blue hat and accessories of black.

The new Mrs. Mast, a graduate of Lancaster High School, attended Ohio State University and Valparaiso University. She is associated with the office personnel of Lancaster Glass Corporation.

Mr. Mast, a graduate of Circleville High School, served two years with the Armed Forces and is presently engaged in farming near here.

Out-of-town guests coming to the wedding were from Circleville, Ashville, Columbus, Cleveland, Zanesville, Williamsport, Logan, Sugar Grove, Cincinnati, Lebanon, Dearborn, Mich. and Tonawanda, N. Y.

Miss Lindsey Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Jo Ann Spice and Mrs. Warren Grover were co-hostesses recently for a bridal shower given in honor of Miss Donna Jane Lindsey, bride-elect of Mr. David Smith.

An umbrella, decorated with red, pink and white ribbons, was placed over a table where gifts were displayed.

Games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Emma Martin and Mrs. Dale Diltz who presented their prizes to the honored guest.

A dessert course was served to the following:

Mrs. Lyman Lindsey, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Dale Diltz, Miss Lillian Wagner, Mrs. Ralph Curtin, Mrs. Emma Martin, Mrs. Charles W. Walker, Mrs. David Walker, Mrs. Stanley Shirey, Mrs. Fred Cupp and Barbara, Mrs. Raymond Goodman and Amy Lou Gover.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Myrtle Lockard and Mrs. Bud Pauley.

Mrs. Bausum Hostess At Bridal Shower

Miss Karen Warner was honored guest at a bridal shower Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Bausum, Ashville.

Contests and games were conducted and prizes awarded. The honored guest opened her gifts at a shower table decorated with a pink and white sprinkling can with bell arrangements.

The Misses Janet and Brenda Bausum assisted their mother in serving a dessert course to the following guests: Mrs. Everett Peters, Mrs. Nelson Warner, Mrs. Robert Knode, Mrs. Otis Leist, Mrs. Wilma Warner, Mrs. Jerome Warner and Mrs. Ray Hffner.

Mrs. William Wharton, Mrs. Joe Hedges, Mrs. Robert Barr, Mrs. Nolo Gulick, Mrs. Homer Bausum and the guest of honor.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Warren Brown, Miss Bonnie Brown, Mrs. Ben Nothesteine, Mrs. John Hefner, Mrs. Charles Niles, Mrs. Maynard Warner, Mrs. Lloyd Wardel and Miss Linda Wardell.

Mr. Rihl Honored At Birthday Fete

Mr. C. H. Rihl, of Mount Sterling, was honored guest at a birthday party in his home Sunday. The festivities were held to celebrate Mr. Rihl's 80th birthday. Mr. Rihl, a lifelong resident of this area and a farmer for more than 40 years, was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and cards.

Ice cream and cake were served to the guests by Mrs. Rihl's wife, Estella, and daughter, Mary Alice.

Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rihl; Jessie Mogen; Mrs. Harvey Akers and daughters, Linda and Gwen, all of Columbus; Mrs. Edna Giffin of Grove City; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rihl and daughter, Sue, of Circleville; Mrs. Cook Metzger and sons, Randy, Rick and Darren; Mrs. Maude Rihl; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose and son, Byron, all of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCulla and children, Cheryl, Jeff, Lisa and Kelly, of Frankfort; Mrs. Vonna Rasor and Jerry Rasor, of Commercial Point.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Code of Ethics on Tattling

DEAR ABBY: In our class at school we got into a big discussion about "tattling" and we would like to know how you feel about the subject. Thank you.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS DEAR STUDENTS: For some reason, teachers and even parent teach young people that it is "unethical" or downright disgraceful for one child to tell someone in authority that another child has disobeyed, misbehaved or even broken the law. Is it any wonder we have hoodlums and vandals who count it a virtue not to "squeal"?

This is not to be confused with running to Mamma or the teacher with, "Johnny hit me!" If children are to grow up with a sense of civic duty, they cannot be taught that it is "noble" to remain silent when they know who has destroyed public property or committed other serious anti-social acts. (It is their parents who must pay for such deeds). Also it is unfair that a guilty child should "get by" unpunished; the next time he will try something a little bolder. I think it is time we adults reviewed our attitude on "tattling."

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I rented this apartment, we specifically asked if we could keep our dog with us. The landlord said, "Yes, if the dog is quiet and well-behaved." Our dog is quiet and well-behaved, unless a stranger comes around. We have been here less than a month and the landlord tells us we can't keep our dog. He said, "You have a full-grown boxer, and to me a boxer is not a dog, but a 'pony'." We signed a year's lease and like this place. Can he make us move? And is a boxer a dog or a horse?

JUST MOVED IN DEAR JUST: If your boxer raises hell whenever a "stranger comes around," he is being far from "quiet and well-behaved." You don't need a dictionary, you need a lawyer.

DEAR ABBY: I am amused by some of the women who write to you and ask your help to get them a man. I am an unmarried man, alone, retired and live in my own home on a lake—rather secluded—and have ample income in papers and magazines and have answered others—61 to be exact. I have visited their miserable apartments and have yet to find a lady who will live more than four blocks from a bus line.

Pro Cage League in Hassle Over Eligibility of Star

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

American Basketball League officials, beat by numerous head-aches in the opening weeks of the new professional circuit, were scurrying for the apirin bottle again today over the case of Hawkins.

Hawkins, who scored 14 points as the Eastern Division leading Rens whipped the Washington Tapers 117-88 Friday night and is one of the league's top scorers with a 24-plus scoring average, has had his eligibility status ques-

Fairfield Gets Birdies; Foes Get Applause

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The crowds keep following the big names in the $20,000 Beaumont invitational Golf Tournament, but the least worried of the neglected entries is Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill.

The slender 32-year-old simply goes about his business of getting the ball in he cup.

With only nine persons trailing his threesome, Fairfield rifled a one-under par 70 Friday to maintain a two-stroke edge on the field at the halfway point with a 36-hole total of 136.

Fairfield, who created a stir with a five-under 66 in Thursday's opening round, laughed it off when he was asked about the gallery pursuing such top figures as Doug Sanders, Jay Hebert and Bob Rousburg.

"Maybe I'm not colorful enough," he grinned. "But I'll tell you one thing—I'll take the birdies and they can take the applause." Herbert and the hometown favorite, Bert Weaver, had a throng of some 2,000 on their heels, but the scoreboard showed Fairfield all alone just before darkness.

Weber missed his chance with a double bogey five on the par 3 No. 17, and Weaver looped a tee shot into a lake on No. 5 to hurt his hopes of improving on an eventual 69. Hebert came in at 73 and is tied with Rousburg at 138, two shots off the Fairfield pace. Sanders has 140, four strokes off the pace.

PIN BRIEFS

Prairie Chicks
High individual singles — Pat Francis with 186; top individual three games — Donna Leist, 491 at Prairie Lanes.

Top team, one and three matches — Spark's Roofing, with 712 and 2,039. Shirley Holland topped the difficult 7-9 split to highlight league action. The setup usually stumps bowlers and is considered one of the hardest to master for amateurs.

Church League
Bst individual one contest — Larry Smith, with 194; top series, Larry Dietrich, 544; runnerup series, Butch Lutz, with 536 at Circle D Lanes.

High team singles and series — St. Joseph's No. 2 with 922 and 2,706. All scores are figured without handicaps.

Elks League
High individual singles — Dave Crawford, with 223; top individual series and singles — Charles Mowery and Dave Crawford, 556; runnerup series, Larry Dietrich on a 540. All scores computed without handicaps at Circle D Lanes.

READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO
Marianne Montgomery Jackson, guardian of Paul Raymond Jackson, an incompetent person, Plaintiff, vs.

Paul Raymond Jackson, et al., Defendants.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC SALE
In pursuance of the order of the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio, I will offer for sale at public auction the 4th day of December, 1961, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the door of the Court-house, the following described real estate, situated in the City of Circleville, County of Pickaway and State of Ohio, to-wit:

Beginning at a stake in the north line of Main Street and southeast corner to that part of Lot No. 218 as said by Isaac Stout, thence with his line in a northerly direction 205 feet to a stake in the south line of Kincaid Alley; thence with the south line of said alley in an easterly direction 40 feet to a stake; thence in a southerly direction and parallel to the line of said Stout 205 feet to a stake in the north line of Main Street; thence with said line in a westerly direction 40 feet to the place of beginning, being about 181 square feet of Lot No. 218 and 8019 square feet of Lot No. 219 in said City of Circleville. Being the same premises conveyed to Clarence E. Bowers and Florence M. Bowers by deed from George W. Hefner and Belle M. Hefner, his wife, dated September 27, 1923 and recorded in Deed Book 103, page 155 of the Deed Records of said County. Said premises are also known as 140 East Main Street, Circleville, Ohio. Said premises are appraised at $25,000.00, and must be sold for not less than two-thirds of said appraised value, and the terms of sale are ten per cent of the sale price to be paid to the guardian immediately upon the sale and the balance of the sale price to be paid to the guardian upon the confirmation of the sale by the Court and the delivery of the Deed.

tioned by several coaches. A New York schoolboy stand-out, Hawkins attended the University of Iowa in 1960, but dropped out due to scholastic difficulties. The coaches claim an ABL rule prohibits Hawkins from playing in the league until his college class graduates. That would place Hawkins on the sidelines until 1964.

But Pittsburgh owner Lenny Litman says the owners voted to waive the rule because of economic hardship on the part of Hawkins' family. "Hawkins couldn't go back to school and he needed a job badly. The best thing he could do was play basketball," Litman said.

The officials will meet in Chicago Sunday to consider the case.

While the Rens were bringing the ABL's best record to 3-1, Cleveland beat San Francisco 97-82 and knocked the Saints off the top rung in the West. Kansas City 121-101 winners over Hawaii, and Los Angeles, which defeated Chicago 121-106, are tied for first.

Philadelphia, which means Wilt Chamberlain and Co., visits Boston tonight, which often means trouble for Wilt.

The Giant warrior center, scoring about 50 points a game, has his most trouble against Boston's Bill Russell, acknowledged defensive genius of the National Basketball Association. Russell held Chamberlain to his season low, 28 points, in their last meeting.

Aside from their head-on battle, the game also has the Eastern Division lead at stake.

Boston, three-time league champion, has a 4-1 lead and Philadelphia is 6-3, but even in the game-behind column. A Philadelphia victory would put the Warriors on top.

In games Friday night Detroit won its second straight, 124-118 at New York, while Cincinnati pulled out a 122-117 victory over the New Chicago Packers at Cincinnati.

Chicago and Cincinnati meet again this afternoon in Chicago for a nationally televised game. New York is at Syracuse and Detroit at St. Louis tonight in the other games.

"WORLD BY NIGHT" — Paris' Feline is one of the exotic dancers featured in "World by Night," a two-hour tour of the world's most famous nightclubs. The full-length color feature is now playing at the Starlight Cruise-In Theater.

Firm Moves, 42 Employees File Lawsuit

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suit for damages totaling $1,315,000 has been filed against the Hoover Ball & Bearing Co. by 42 employees who lost their jobs when the firm moved its Universal Wire Spring Division to Georgetown, Ky., last Dec. 8.

The petition, filed in Federal Court, said the plaintiffs all had asked for transfer to Georgetown and were turned down. The 42, who had seniority ranging from 5 to 20 years, asked for damages of $20,000 to $40,000 each.

They were among some 400 employees affected by the move from the plant in suburban Bedford, where the firm had operated since 1939. The division makes automobile springs. Employees there were represented by the Allied Industrial Workers.

Job transfer rights of employees when a company moves to another area have been upheld in two recent federal court suits in other states.

Adios Butler Set for Finale

Great Pacer To End Racing Career Tonight

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — Adios Butler bids goodbye to harness racing tonight and if the world's fastest pacer doesn't win the $50,000 National Pacing Derby at Roosevelt Raceway it would be an astounding upset.

Virtually everyone in the sulky set expects the 5-year-old horse to close out his career with his 13th straight victory, his 37th in 50 starts and possibly another world record. He is the 1-to-4 choice in the morning line, despite having to start from the second tier in a 10-horse field. By post time — approximately 10:10 p.m. EST — may be as low as the legal 1-to-20.

Driver Eddie Cobb wasn't too concerned about the post position.

As for trying for a world record in the mile and one-quarter race Cobb declared "I never try for a record." Nevertheless the Butler has set world records the last two Saturdays at Hollywood Park in California.

The record for 1 1/4 miles is 2:52.1-5 held by O'Brien Hanover, one of the nine who faces the Butler in his final competitive appearance. The other eight are Irvin Paul, Sampson Direct, Apmat, Stephen Smith, Stormy Dream, Milford Hanover, Doc Hobbs and Muncy Hanover.

A victory tonight for the Butler would increase his career earnings to $510,594. After that he will be retired to stud at the Fair Chance Farm in Washington Court House, Ohio.

Jim Brown To Shoot for 86 Yards

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Washington Redskins have treated Jim Brown roughly on several occasions, but the Cleveland Browns' fullback will try to gain 86 yards in Washington Sunday to make him the second best ground gainer in National Football League history.

Brown, the league leader in rushing this season with 720 yards, has gained a total of 5,775 yards since joining the professional ranks in 1957. He will be shooting for Steve Van Buren's mark of 5,860 yards Sunday.

Joe Perry, the Baltimore Colts' 12-year veteran, holds the NFL record of 7,648 yards and still is going strong.

The Redskins last month held Brown to 24 yards on 17 carries. Two years ago, when Jim was en route to a NFL ground gaining record of 1,527 yards in a season, the Washington defense held him to a mere 12 yards.

Halfback Bobby Mitchell, who is with a medical detachment at Ft. Meade, Md., hopes to join the Browns for a workout at D.C. Stadium in Washington this afternoon. He returned to Cleveland on a weekend pass to play against the Pittsburgh Steelers last Sunday.

The Browns are counting more heavily on Mitchell Sunday because his replacement, rookie Tom Watkins, is out of action with a dislocated shoulder suffered against the Steelers.

The Redskins will be seeking their first victory since October 1960. They have lost their last 16 games.

Florida Heavy Faces Ring Test

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Alonti, an unbeaten young heavyweight from Hollywood, Fla., with 27 victories, faces his most important test tonight when he takes on George Logan of Boise, Idaho, at Madison Square Garden.

Alonti, 22, a rangy 6-4, has been brought along slowly under the guidance of Charlie Goldman, Rocky Marciano's old trainer. Young Tony has knocked out 16 opponents.

Logan, 25, is known hereabouts for three losing fights with Tom McNeely, the Bostonian who challenges Floyd Patterson for the title Dec. 4 in Toronto. Logan's record is 21-5-1.

The fight will be seen on network (ABC) television starting at 10 p.m. (EST).

Buckskin Takes 63-53 Verdict Over Monroe

Host Monroe roared to a 30-32 halftime lead, but couldn't hang on in the final chapter as Buckskin lashed back to grab a 63-53 court decision last night.

The skirmish turned out to be a scoring duel between Jeff Bigam of Monroe and Johnson of Buckskin. Bigam heated the nets with 23 points and Johnson tallied 24. Jim Shell contributed 10 points to the Monroe cause and Bob Diltz had nine. Hitt and Speakman added 12 and 10 respectively for Buckskin.

Bigam tallied heavily on some good rebounding, while Johnson found the range on set and jump shots and timely drives.

Monroe prevented a double sweep by rolling for a 51-31 victory in the preliminary.

Massillon Barely Wins Over Parma

CLEVELAND (AP) — Massillon's defending state high school football champions edged Parma 21-20 Friday night, with a placement by Wilbur Paisley, the Tigers' place-kicking specialist, providing the margin of victory.

The Tigers, ranked first on The Associated Press poll, turned two Parma fumbles into touchdowns in the third period to overcome a 20-8 halftime deficit and remain in the unbeaten ranks. It was their 13th straight victory—10 of them this season.

Parma, which entered the game with a 5-4 record, is the first team to score 20 points against Massillon this season. The strong Tiger defense had yielded an average of only 4.2 points per game until Friday night's contest.

In other games involving the Top 10 teams, second ranked Niles gained stature by trouncing third ranked Alliance 30-6; Hamilton Garfield, No. 7 last week, edged fifth-ranked Middletown 26-22; Kettering Fairmont, No. 8, rolled over Xenia Central 28-0; ninth-ranked Martins Ferry defeated Bridgeport 36-6, and tenth-ranked Toledo Maconber downed Toledo Scott 6-0.

Cincinnati Roger Bacon, No. 4, and Bellevue, No. 6, did not play.

Tribute Planned For OU President

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and other representatives of state and national government and universities throughout the country will pay tribute to Ohio University president John C. Baker Nov. 17.

Dr. Baker announced his impending retirement this summer, after 16 years as president of Ohio's oldest university. His successor, Dr. Vernon R. Alden of Harvard University, is expected to take office in January.

Completing plans for the John C. Baker Day celebration are Fred H. Johnson, Columbus, chairman; Gordon K. Bush, Athens; and C. Don McVay, also of Athens.

The Los Angeles Angels made their best showing in Chicago, turning back the White Sox 6 times in 8 meetings. They beat Chicago and Washington on the season, 10 games to 8.

Pro College League in Hassle Over Eligibility of Star

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
American Basketball League officials, beat by numerous headlines in the opening weeks of the new professional circuit, were scurrying for the apirin bottle again today over the case of Hawkins.

Hawkins, who scored 14 points as the Eastern Division leading Rens whipped the Washington Tapers 117-88 Friday night and is one of the league's top scorers with a 24-plus scoring average, has had his eligibility status questioned by several coaches. A New York schoolboy stand-out, Hawkins attended the University of Iowa in 1960, but dropped out due to scholastic difficulties. The coaches claim an ABL rule prohibits Hawkins from playing in the league until his college class graduates. That would place Hawkins on the sidelines until 1964.

But Pittsburgh owner Lenny Litman says the owners voted to waive the rule because of economic hardship on the part of Hawkins' family. "Hawkins couldn't go back to school and he needed a job badly. The best thing he could do was play basketball," Litman said.

The officials will meet in Chicago Sunday to consider the case.

While the Rens were bringing the ABL's best record to 3-1, Cleveland beat San Francisco 97-88 and knocked the Saints off the top rung in the West. Kansas City 121-101 winners over Hawaii, and Los Angeles, which defeated Chicago 121-106, are tied for first.

Philadelphia, which means Wilt Chamberlain and Co., visits Boston tonight, which often means trouble for Wilt.

The Giant warrior center, scoring about 50 points a game, has his most trouble against Boston's Bill Russell, acknowledged defensive genius of the National Basketball Association. Russell held Chamberlain to his season low, 28 points, in their last meeting.

Aside from their head-on battle, the game also has the Eastern Division lead at stake.

Boston, three-time league champion, has a 4-1 lead and Philadelphia is 6-3, but even in the game-behind column. A Philadelphia victory would put the Warriors on top.

In games Friday night Detroit won its second straight, 124-118 at New York, while Cincinnati pulled out a 122-117 victory over the New Chicago Packers at Cincinnati.

Chicago and Cincinnati meet again this afternoon in Chicago for a nationally televised game.

New York is at Syracuse and Detroit at St. Louis tonight in the other games.

CHS Tigers Roar - 'Touchdown! Touchdown! Touchdowns!!'

PUTTING TOGETHER A PENNANT — The threads of victory and an SCOL co-championship wind their way on the winged feet of a trio of Tigers in last night's 33-13 Circleville win over loop rival Pleasant View. At left Duke Fyffe unloads a 21-yard touchdown burst up the middle for the second CHS score of the opening period. Receiver John Pharr (86) puts the finishing touches on the Bengals' third TD, totting a pass from Dave Hannahs 43 yards while Panther half-back Pat Mogan (21) trails in pursuit. Garold Dade (50) plunges three yards for another second-quarter score as Chester Bauer (40) brings him down. Watching is senior halfback Roy Porter (22).

(Photos by Ron Warren)

punt with 10:42 remaining in the first period. Setting up shop on the Panther 46 the Tigers quickly got on the scoring path as Garold Dade burst up the middle for 10 yards. Dade and Duke Fyffe alternated on four carries until Dave Hannahs ran far to the right, sighted Freddie Moore and hurled a fingertip pass to the halfback near the end zone with seven minutes left in the quarter.

Ray Taylor sent a booming shot through the uprights and the score read 7-0 Tigers.

MOORE triggered the Bengals' second scoring jab less than two minutes later, intercepting a Dave Armstrong pass on the 50 and scurrying to the 21. Fyffe took charge in a sparkling display of swift running on the first play of scrimmage, going the distance for the score. Hannahs upped the margin to 15-0 by diving over for the extra points.

Pleasant View made its best advance of the half — to its own 48 — grinding through the first period's close in the process with Armstrong hitting halfback Pat Mogan for a 13-yard aerial to spark the drive. But the Panthers sputtered as a supercharged Rooney threw Robert Neeley for a loss on a fourth-and-one setup.

Fyffe and Moore combined for four, then with 7:24 on the clock Hannahs located John Pharr all along and ready for an end zone journey. The pass play covered 43 yards and made the tally 21-0 as Taylor's kick was blocked.

It just was not Pleasant View's night in the air, as Dade redirected an intended Mogan-Bauer throw on the PV 34 and climaxed short carries by Fyffe and Moore with a three-yard plunge for the Tigers fourth touchdown. Hannahs ran a high center without success and the count stood 27-0 with 2:25 to go in the half.

Misfortune visited the visitors in king-size doses in the waning moments of the period. Tony Zanetos bobbled Rooney's kickoff and Pharr dove on it at the 31. Hannahs fired a long pass that just missed Pharr at the three and, after a quick exchange of possession via Moore's interception of an Armstrong heave, Hannahs faked for 16 yards around right end to put the scoring wheels in motion again.

Moore put on a rare exhibition of hope-speech, picking his way through a mass of Panther defenders 20 yards for the Tigers last marker with 28 seconds left in the half. Pleasant View went to the dressing room still without a taste of contact in Tiger territory.

BENHASE PULLED most of his starting lineup, including six seniors, as the second half opened, but the reserves proved almost as difficult for Pleasant View as their star-studded elders. Junior fullback Tom Moore clipped for two nine and one 11 yard carries to spark the reserve ground attack, while passing proved a pleasant surprise, with sophomore quarterback Dave Bass lofting six and 24 - yard completions.

At one point near the close of the third quarter the Tigers poised at touchdown door on the PV eight, but ran out of downs.

The Panthers showed a commendable bounce-back spirit in the half, with halfback Roy Porter ripping off the longest gainer, a 41-yard thrust in the third period. Steady drives pushed the line of play to the Circleville 33 when the seniors — Bob Wilson, Rooney, Jim Anderson, Vern Reichmanis, Keith Thomerson and Gary Harrison — returned for their curtain call.

Armstrong spoiled the shoutout bid, though, with 2:08 to go, galloping 13 yards for the first Panther touchdown. With 15 seconds of the season left, Gary Ebright hoisted a 27-yard pass to Jim Cahill and Barry Jut. booted successfully to wrap up the 33-13 final.

"What can I say," Behase queried again in the dressing room, drying himself with a beach towel after his watery welcome. "The boys wanted it badly enough — and they got it."

AND THAT'S about the sum of the spirit that brought Circleville a football pennant after a decade of frustration.

EXTRA POINTS
Shouts, cheers and more cheers echoed throughout the CHS locker room minutes after the game . . . normal reaction for a football team that had just won a share of the SCOL championship.

Coaches and a multitude of well-wishing fans joined in the hilarious celebration.

More than just a little happy was Coach Carl Benhase, all smiles following an impromptu visit to the showers, overcoat and all . . . courtesy of some muscular CHS gridders.

Another shower visitor was Joe Rooney, father of Captain Pat Rooney . . . although slightly wet, he clutched the precious game ball presented to him by the team.

Coaches Dick Fisher, John Adler, Jim Lint and Jim Shaw also emerged with rather soggy shirts and dripping neckties . . . but with no regrets.

Mogan tackled by Mogan . . . that's right, it happened that way last night. Pat Mogan of Pleasant View is a nephew of Tim Mogan of Circleville by way of the family tree . . . and sure enough Tim upended his nephew with a jolting tackle during one stage of the game.

Noticed early: those bright red socks worn by one of the smart stepping young Boy Scouts on the flag-raising detail.

As was the case last week at Franklin Heights, spirit was at top level. The band formed a huge archway for the team's entrance onto the field.

The Tigers enjoyed a victory gathering at Benny's Restaurant at about midnight . . . this was probably the latest they've been out legally since the season started.

Sophomores and juniors played almost the entire second half after CHS piled up a 33-point gap in the first two chapters. The young gridders were praised by Coach Benhase for a fine showing.

As always, the CHS Band put forth an extra effort for a delight-

Fourth Quarter Is Fatal for Walnut Cagers

Chalking up a 15 - point advantage in the fourth quarter, Clarksburg defeated Walnut 80-56 last night in the second game of the season for both cage teams.

McDonald dominated the Clarksburg drive, dumping in a solid 30 points, most of them short jumps or layups after long down-court passes. Larry Leist, hitting from all over the floor, punched through 20 tallies for the losers on seven field goals and six foul tosses.

Walnut, utilizing a heavy press, held the Clarksburg offense in check through most of the first three quarters. At the half the visitors led by only a three - point margin, 38-35 and could claim just a 59-50 advantage going into the final stanza.

But coach Paul Reiss's Tigers could not stay with their lanky guests in the fourth quarter. Backing up Leist in the Walnut attack was Mike Neff, who pumped through eight field goals for 16 counters.

Centralia Nips Huntington by Single Marker

Centralia's Bulldogs, led by Monte Hinton's 13-point scoring spree, captured their second win of an undefeated basketball campaign last night before a wildly cheering overflow crowd in the Centralia gym, beating Huntington 48-47.

In a tilt where never more than three points separated the leaders from their opponents the Bulldogs nailed down the victory by double-defending 6'5" Huntington offensive threat Butler, holding him to a meagre 11 points.

Backing up Hinton for the winners were Tom Liston and Floyd Edler, each with 10 points. Seeling and Kellough topped Huntington's attack with 14 tallies apiece.

Centralia led by one marker when Bulldog players missed two foul shot chances with 10 seconds left in the fourth period. Seeling rocketed down court for Huntington, launching the ball with a set shot from mid-court. It rode the rim, then dribbled out as the buzzer sounded ending the game.

For Centralia the victory was attained by "just plain stubbornness, and an unwillingness to lose," coach Bob Sigler said. He added, however, "When we missed those foul shots at the end of the game I almost picked my heart up from the floor."

Carter Sets Pace In Bowling Meet

Carter, of St. Louis, chalked up a score of 2,248 in ten games to take a 25-pin lead in Friday's opening round of the $40,000 event.

The field of 192 completes the 20-game qualifier today and will be cut to 96 for Sunday's third round. The field will be narrowed again to 24 for Monday's finals.

Don Scott of Cleveland was the only other bowler to crack the 2,200 level. He posted a 2,223, 27 pins ahead of third place Ostroski of Philadelphia, who had 2,196.

Sailors Unaware Princess on Hand

HONG KONG (AP) — Princess Alexandra went sightseeing with the U.S. Navy Thursday night but the Navy didn't know it.

Dressed in a suit and sweater, the pretty, 25-year-old cousin of Queen Elizabeth II rode the cable car to the top of the Peak looking out over Hong Kong. The trip was impromptu and there was no fanfare.

Six American sailors sat at the back of the car cheerfully drinking from a bottle of whisky and unaware of royalty aboard.

The Los Angeles Angels pulled a big surprise by winning 70 games in their first American League season. They finished only one-half game behind Minnesota for seventh place.

Deers Defeat Jackson in 52-50 Contest

Williamsport and Jackson locked horns for an exciting non-league court battle last night, with the visiting Deers eventually coming out on top, 52-50.

Williamsport led throughout, but never by a wide margin. The half-time score was 30-22 and the third period climax was 42-39.

Jackson played the final 45 seconds with only four men left — four mates left via the foul route.

Larry Beard of Jackson worked over the cords for 22 points and Clark Maughmer added 12 more. The Deers offset this attack as Bruce Willis connected for 11 and Brooks McCoy 10.

Williamsport cleaned the slate with a 47-30 win in the reserve tilt.

CHS Tigers Roar - 'Touchdown! Touchdown! Touchdowns!!'

PUTTING TOGETHER A PENNANT — The threads of victory and an SCOL co-championship wind their way on the winged feet of a trio of Tigers in last night's 33-13 Circleville win over loop rival Pleasant View. At left Duke Fyffe unloads a 21-yard touchdown burst up the middle for the second CHS score of the opening period. Receiver John Pharr (86) puts the finishing touches on the Bengals' third TD, totting a pass from Dave Hannahs 43 yards while Panther half-back Pat Mogan (21) trails in pursuit. Garold Dade (50) plunges three yards for another second-quarter score as Chester Bauer (40) brings him down. Watching is senior halfback Roy Porter (22).

Tigers Share . . .

punt with 10:42 remaining in the first period. Setting up shop on the Panther 46 the Tigers quickly got on the scoring path as Garold Dade burst up the middle for 10 yards. Dade and Duke Fyffe alternated on four carries until Dave Hannahs ran far to the right, sighted Freddie Moore and hurled a fingertip pass to the halfback near the end zone with seven minutes left in the quarter.
Ray Taylor sent a booming shot through the uprights and the score read 7-0 Tigers.

MOORE triggered the Bengal's second scoring jab less than two minutes later, intercepting a Dave Armstrong pass on the 50 and scurrying to the 21. Fyffe took charge in a sparkling display of swift running on the first play of scrimmage, going the distance for the score. Hannahs upped the margin to 15-0 by diving over for the extra points.

Pleasant View made its best advance of the half — to its own 48 — grinding through the first period's close in the process with Armstrong hitting halfback Pat Mogan for a 13-yard aerial to spark the drive. But the Panthers sputtered as a supercharged Rooney threw Robert Neeley for a loss on a fourth-and-one setup.

Fyffe and Moore combined for four, then with 7:24 on the clock Hannahs located John Pharr all along and ready for an end zone journey. The pass play covered 43 yards and made the tally 21-0 as Taylor's kick was blocked.

It just was not Pleasant View's night in the air, as Dade redirected an intended Mogan - Bauer throw on the PV 34 and climaxed short carries by Fyffe and Moore with a three-yard plunge for the Tigers fourth touchdown. Hannahs ran a high center without success and the count stood 27-0 with 2:25 to go in the half.

Misfortune visited the visitors in king-size doses in the waning moments of the period. Tony Zanetos bobbled Rooney's kickoff and Pharr dived on it at the 31. Hannahs fired a long pass that just missed Pharr at the three and, after a quick exchange of possession via Moore's interception of an Armstrong heave, Hannahs faked for 16 yards around right end to put the scoring wheels in motion again.

Moore put on a rare exhibition of hopscootch, picking his way through a mass of Panther defenders 20 yards for the Tigers last marker with 28 seconds left in the half. Pleasant View went to the dressing room still without a taste of contact in Tiger territory.

BENHASE PULLED most of his starting lineup, including six seniors, as the second half opened, but the reserves proved almost as difficult for Pleasant View as their star-studded elders. Junior fullback Tom Moore clipped for two nine and one 11 yard carries to spark the reserve ground attack, while passing proved a pleasant surprise, with sophomore quarterback Dave Bass lofting six and 24 - yard completions.

At one point near the close of the third quarter the Tigers poised at touchdown door on the PV eight, but ran out of downs.

The Panthers showed a commendable bounce-back spirit in the half, with halfback Roy Porter ripping off the longest gainer, a 41-yard thrust in the third period. Steady drives pushed the line of play to the Circleville 33 when the seniors — Bob Wilson, Rooney, Jim Anderson, Vern Reichmanis, Keith Thomerson and Gary Harrison — returned for their curtain call.

Armstrong spoiled the shoutout bid, though, with 2:08 to go, galloping 13 yards for the first Panther touchdown. With 15 seconds of the season left, Gary Ebright hoisted a 27-yard pass to Jim Cahill and Barry Jut. booted successfully to wrap up the 33-13 final.

"What can I say," Behase queried again in the dressing room, drying himself with a beach towel after his watery welcome. "The boys wanted it badly enough — and they got it."

AND THAT'S about the sum of the spirit that brought Circleville a football pennant after a decade of frustration.

EXTRA POINTS
Shouts, cheers and more cheers echoed throughout the CHS locker room minutes after the game . . . normal reaction for a football team that had just won a share of the SCOL championship.

Coaches and a multitude of well - wishing fans joined in the hilarious celebration.

More than just a little happy was Coach Carl Behase, all smiles following an impromptu visit to the showers, overcoat and all . . . courtesy of some muscular CHS gridders.

Another shower visitor was Joe Rooney, father of Captain Pat Rooney . . . although slightly wet, he clutched the precious game ball presented to him by the team.

Coaches Dick Fisher, John Adler, Jim Lint and Jim Shaw also emerged with rather soggy shirts and dripping neckties . . . but with no regrets.

Mogan tackled by Mogan . . . that's right, it happened that way last night. Pat Mogan of Pleasant View is a nephew of Tim Mogan of Circleville by way of the family tree . . . and sure enough Tim upended his nephew with a jolting tackle during one stage of the game.

Noticed early: those bright red socks worn by one of the smart stepping young Boy Scouts on the flag-raising detail.

As was the case last week at Franklin Heights, spirit was at top level. The band formed a huge archway for the team's entrance onto the field.

The Tigers enjoyed a victory gathering at Benny's Restaurant at about midnight . . . this was probably the latest they've been out legally since the season started.

Sophomores and juniors played almost the entire second half after CHS piled up a 33-point gap in the first two chapters. The young gridders were praised by Coach Behase for a fine showing.

As always, the CHS Band put forth an extra effort for a delight-

Fourth Quarter Is Fatal for Walnut Cagers

Chalking up a 15 - point advance in the fourth quarter, Clarksburg defeated Walnut 80-56 last night in the second game of the season for both cage teams.

McDonald dominated the Clarksburg drive, dumping in a solid 30 points, most of them short jumps or layups after long down-court passes. Larry Leist, hitting from all over the floor, punched through 20 tallies for the losers on seven field goals and six foul tosses.

Walnut, utilizing a heavy press, held the Clarksburg offensive in check through most of the first three quarters. At the half the visitors led by only a three - point margin, 38-35 and could claim just a 59-50 advantage going into the final stanza.

But coach Paul Reiss's Tigers could not stay with their lanky guests in the fourth quarter. Backing up Leist in the Walnut attack was Mike Neff, who pumped through eight field goals for 16 counters.
